EQUAL AND VARIED OPPORTUNITIES . .

This campus welcomes all who come in contact with Withrow. It and its buildings provide inspiration, knowledge, and recreation for a firm foundation in service to mankind. The beauty of the walls of Withrow has become an inspiration for art and literature. The students, who see this beauty and use it, obtain wisdom which cannot be taken away. Scores of books in the school library help students and faculty to gather knowledge which will remain useful to them during their journey of life. Activities in clubs and gymnasium furnish physical as well as mental growth. Taking an active part in such organizations prepares youth for the social world he will soon be meeting.

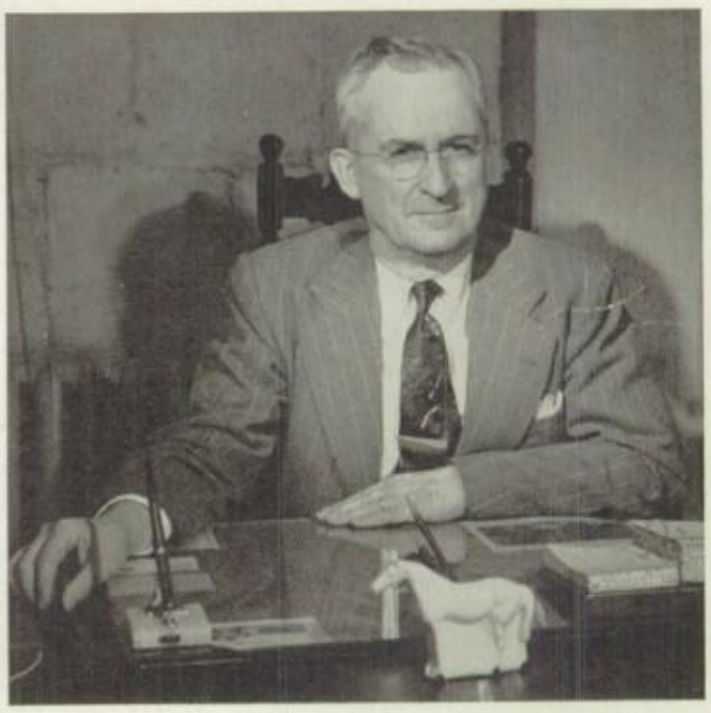
When our Mr. Mathias spoke of the Annual as "an outstanding contribution to the pupils' morale" unwittingly he might have been speaking of himself, for to receive one of his warm smiles and to be under his superb supervision is to feel completely secure. Deep in his heart is a sincere devotion to and pride in our Alma Mater. He speaks of this book as "the strongest tie-back to our school," his own personality being that, too. Mr. Wilbur, kind and willing, helps the young unsettled people in junior high adjust and prepare themselves for high school. His wonderful co-operation is typified by this statement supporting the year book; "The deep regard in which the junior high holds the Annual can be shown in no better way than by the large percentage of subscriptions each year—40 percent for 1952."



TEACHERS ARE LIKE THE ROOTS OF STAUNCH

Mr. Vigard and his secretary, Mrs. Hammann, formulate a sophomore's itinerary.

For sophomores, planning next year's schedule can prove to be a trying job because by this time they should have some plans for their careers and now should begin to adjust their subjects accordingly. This task is less tedious with Mr. Vigard's personal assistance.

As the last grains of sand slip past, these girls are beginning to plan for their future education. The lists of colleges and courses are very long, and their decision is an exceedingly difficult one. But with their helpful advisers, they will find a fit school.

Many knotty problems of the girls are untangled by Miss Agerter and Mrs. Konrad.

Honest, I was in study hall during sixth bell, Mr. Rudolf.

When the time has come for pupils to begin their life work, they have reached a crossroad in their young lives. Should they take the road leading to knowledge or the highway to the business world? Their ambitions will have great influence on their final decision because one's vocation depends upon individual likes and desires. When students begin to worry about the future, Miss Murphy and Mr. Rudolf, Vocational Advisers, are always willing to discuss the opportunities open in any particular field. In order to help them, every year the school offers different conferences. In these the students are able to learn the details connected with the field which interests them. Even though the conferences do not always settle their problems, they often help considerably. An added duty of Miss Murphy and Mr. Rudolf is acquainting flustered freshmen with the new and different world which they suddenly find and all technicalities that are found in a school as large as their new environment, their Alma Mater, Withrow.

Program change? Let's see what we can do.

Without its responsible secretaries, Miss Allen, Miss Hoefle, and Mrs. Draude, to manage "finding cards," the intercom telephone, the daily bulletin, the permanent records, and inumerable other essential details of life at Withrow, the student body could not take full advantage of all the opportunities it is offered. For schools, like businesses, need good secretaries to have top-notch results.

AS THEY WATCH OVER TINY, INEXPERIENCED

All right Jack, what's the story now?

Do you sorority and fraternity gals and guys have any complications? This might be a typical question from Miss Tilford or Mr. Nikoloff, supervisors of the sorority and fraternity affairs. They are always ready and willing to help solve any troublesome problems that arise among these organizations.

BUDS WHICH

Before class—a welcomed few minutes of relaxation or perhaps "hall duty," a daily routine for teachers.

What happens during the day at Withrow? What are your teachers like? How do they see the students from day to day? What is a normal day anyway? Who can say what really happens in a day's time during the course of normal school activities? From a teacher's point of view, it is seeing each other for a brief moment or two on arriving in the morning; it is the persuasion needed to hurry the students off to their home rooms so that classes can begin on time; it is the taking of attendance and the reading of announcements to a homeroom of "sleepy-eyes" and "wide-awakes"; it is the pleasant moments spent while partaking of a delicious Withrow meal served with the earthy good-humor of "Gussie"; it is the time devoted to interested students who find the need to spend extra hours on lessons before going home to the TV sets; it is the talks with inquisitive parents who come to find out how their "David" or "Ann" is doing; or it might be the lighter moments when a teacher joins in the fun and helps put over the Assembly program to sell Tower News or the Annual; talks about the spirit of Withrow at pep rallies; brings the experience of summer travel with colored film; commemorates great people in song and story keeping abreast of the times and simultaneously honoring the traditions of the past. It is a normal day when daily class time is sprinkled with the spice of school activities.

Extra cooperation from teacher and pupil boosts doubtful marks.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Last year after much talk concerning a student council here at Withrow, a committee was selected to develop this project. The committee chosen by deans and home room teachers and based on general academic standards wrote to various schools to obtain their student council constitutions for study. As the constitution was written, it was decided that the aims of council would be to encourage leadership and high scholarship, to create a greater sense of responsibility among students, to further school spirit, and to foster a spirit of understanding and co-operation between the students and the members of the faculty. After the plan gained the acceptance of the school, elections were held in May. A representative was selected by each home room, and a number of members at large were chosen so that each class would have equal representation. The new council officers, meeting the council standards, were: Bob Surman, President; Tom Chapopoulo, Vice-President; Mariann Newbold, Treasurer; and Ann Rice, Secretary.

The next step in building the long desired student council was the organizing of five standing committees. The Club Committee is designed to coordinate the activities of social and extra-curricular clubs. The new Assembly Committee has a dual purpose: to help select assemblies and to assist in planning them. The aims of Council are carried out through the action of the Project Committee, while the job of the Library Committee is to aid Miss Pooley, the librarian, in any way possible. Helping with the money on any project is the purpose of the Finance Committee. These and all council projects are supervised by their able advisers, Miss Tilford, Mr. Srofe, and Mrs. Konrad. In their monthly meetings the group as a whole plans many things. A clean-up campaign was promoted last year and has been continued throughout the current year. This fall the council launched a drive for more school spirit. To promote this drive, they gave an exciting outdoor pep assembly, complete with orange and black crepe paper shakers and a march to "The Square." Other council measures included two more pep assemblies, planned yuletide caroling, a survey concerning a junior prom and an attempt to get a phone in the main hall. Through these activities it is apparent that the goals of the council are being fulfilled and appreciated.

THEIR SCHOOL

Did you ever wonder what magic formula produced these tickets, locker keys, movies, slides, lighting effects, school supplies and even accurate monetary accounts? You probably never thought about it until you lost your locker key or at the last minute wanted a ticket for that football game, or ran out of notebook paper. The formula isn't magic at all. It consists of some hard working people, who take valuable minutes of their time to bring these conveniences to all members of the school. So there isn't any need to wonder about these things. Just be glad that there are people in this busy world who will take time out to benefit others.

Geniuses of the exchequer listen to the treasurer.

Speaking of all-around girls, here are sixteen of the best ever, Dux Femina.

Equally prominent and well-liked—the Sigma Gammas, Withrow's pride.

The "almighty" seniors, who truly deserve the title, are the girls of Dux Femina and the boys of Sigma Gamma. These twenty-eight popular, outstanding, and worthy senior students are chosen at the end of the junior year. The girls participated in National Girls' Week, sold refreshments during football games in all kinds of weather, and enjoyed a Thanksgiving supper with Sigma Gamma. These ambitious boys sponsored the 2nd Annual Tigertown Twirl at which Dux had the checkroom, and the ever important dance, dear to every senior's memory book—The Senior Prom! Elated are the senior boy and girl who are awarded the Dux and Sig scholarships. To be selected a member of these two honor societies is the coveted goal of all enthusiastic Withrowites.

AN HONOR SORORITY AND FRATERNITY,

Thrilled Dux's are greeted by smiling seniors on class day with affectionate hugs and gold bracelets.

Sigma Gamma calls. Who is it?

"Dingle" is presented with Sig pin.

New Dux's receive carnations.

Surprised and happy Sigs realize a boy's highest dream come true.

At last the morning arrives when the student body files into the stadium for the purpose of recognizing the outstanding pupils of the senior high. With an air of expectancy class day brings about the traditional designating of the next year's Dux Feminas and Sigma Gammas. Each excited junior boy intensely awaits the shouting of his name from the Sigma Gamma huddle. Trembling with excitement, the junior girls rush down seemingly endless steps to receive their carnations and bracelets from the members of the year ending.

A PARENTAL INTEREST IN THINGS AT

Visiting parents see the hearing aids and realize the opportunities these instruments offer oral classes.

Jack demonstrates a microprojector.

Well, soon they will know all!

There comes a time in all parents' lives when they have the opportunity to see the inside view of "Junior's" vigorous school life. This opportunity comes once a year on what is called Parent's Night. This is one night "Junior" is wholly smiles as he proudly displays the notebooks and projects he has struggled over so tediously during the previous weeks and months. Also at this time, the parents are able to see the true picture of the close teacher-student relationship which is a traditional existence at Withrow High School.

AND ACCEPT NEW RESPONSIBILITIES

STUDENT LIFE

December! What a festive month; bursting with excitement! G.A.A., setting, a tone of sparkling gaiety, put up and decorated a lovely Christmas tree. Santa Claus was represented in all his glory by the paintings of him the art students made on the hall window. Withrow looked as though jolly St. Nick had visited. A harmonious note was achieved by the well trained choral groups in the Christmas Concert. Its peak was the "Song of Christmas" by the Senior Choir. Another stirring event took place in this winter month—the Minstrel Try-Outs! Would-be stars worked on their acts many days for long hours to bring them to their final perfection. Following the try-outs came a tense period of suspense. Then at last the list was posted on the band room bulletin board. Real rehearsal work began.

CLASS SOLEMNLY

Hungry? Good food? But definitely!

LUNCH AND 3:00

Lunch call and dismissal bell, welcomed the world over by book-weary school kids, can be the sweetest sounds on earth—especially if they interrupt a geometry quiz or a passage of unstudied Latin translation. After hours of gruelling concentration on Chaucer's old English or the results of the Peloponnesian Wars, a warning bell's class-disrupting clatter or a lunchboy's gentle cry of "Lunch!" can throw an entire room into pandemonium. Students especially rejoice at the thought of the wide choice of appetizing, well-prepared food, served cafeteria style. There is seldom a day when the lunch lines don't extend to the hall. Dismissal, awaited from first period forward, becomes a reality at the bell's last ringing. After a mad dash out the door and the happy confusion of schoolbus, comes the blessed peace of home.

Out of school at last and off to a coke date before going home.

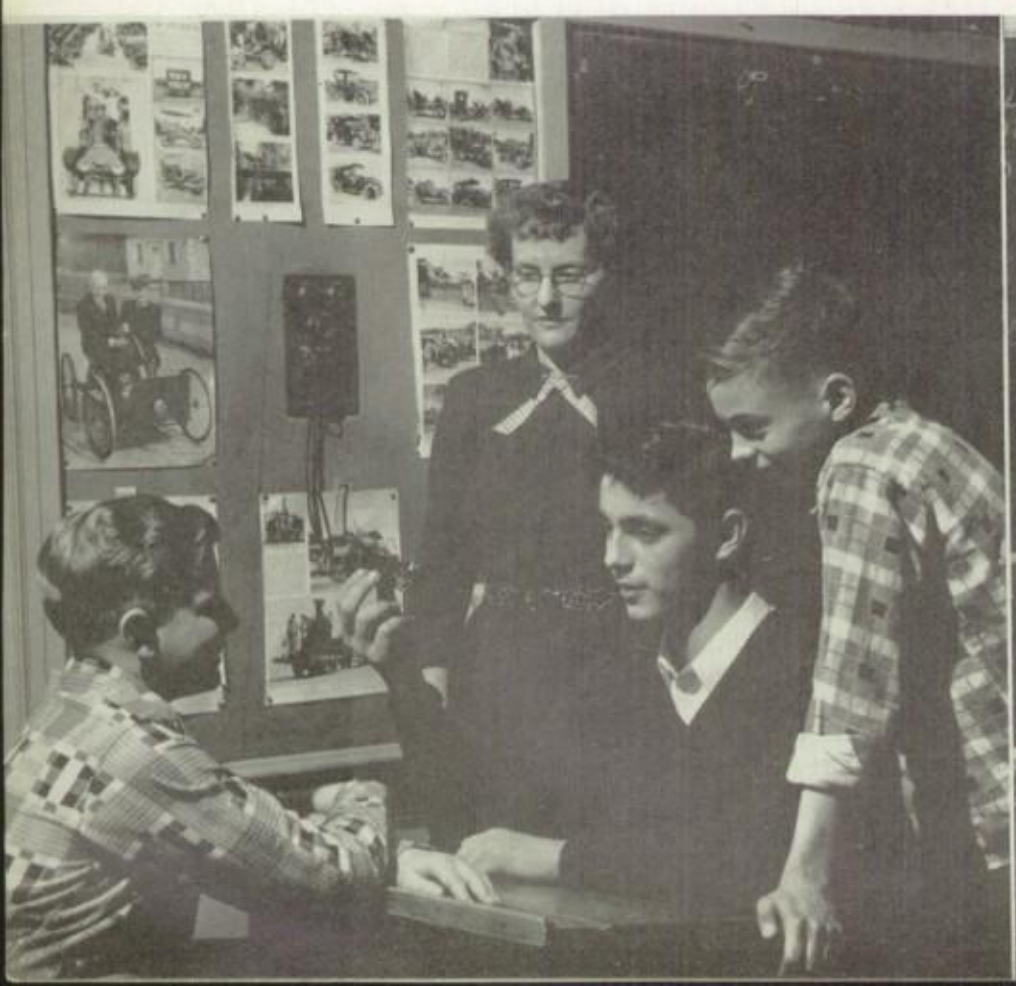
THAT WHIRL ABOUT THE LOFTY TOWER.

"Nothing but the best for our best," says Mr. Wilbur. Superior equipment for "Cradle of Leadership."

The students in Withrow Junior High are afforded many opportunities in pursuing their education which are not available to many students. They have the combined advantages of the warmness and friendliness of a small school and the spirit and prestige of a large school. In their own separate building the family of teachers get to know them intimately and work with them on their educational problems. Here they develop their attitudes toward work and study, develop an understanding of books and things, learn the fundamentals of playing the game according to the rules and the meaning of fair play, and begin to grasp an idea of the meaning of art and the technicalities of industrial labor. The student in the Junior High with his boundless energy seems to the Senior

YOUNG STUDENTS ATTAIN APPRENTICE

Mysteries of the sciences are cleared by the auto's parable and the weatherman's intricate devices.

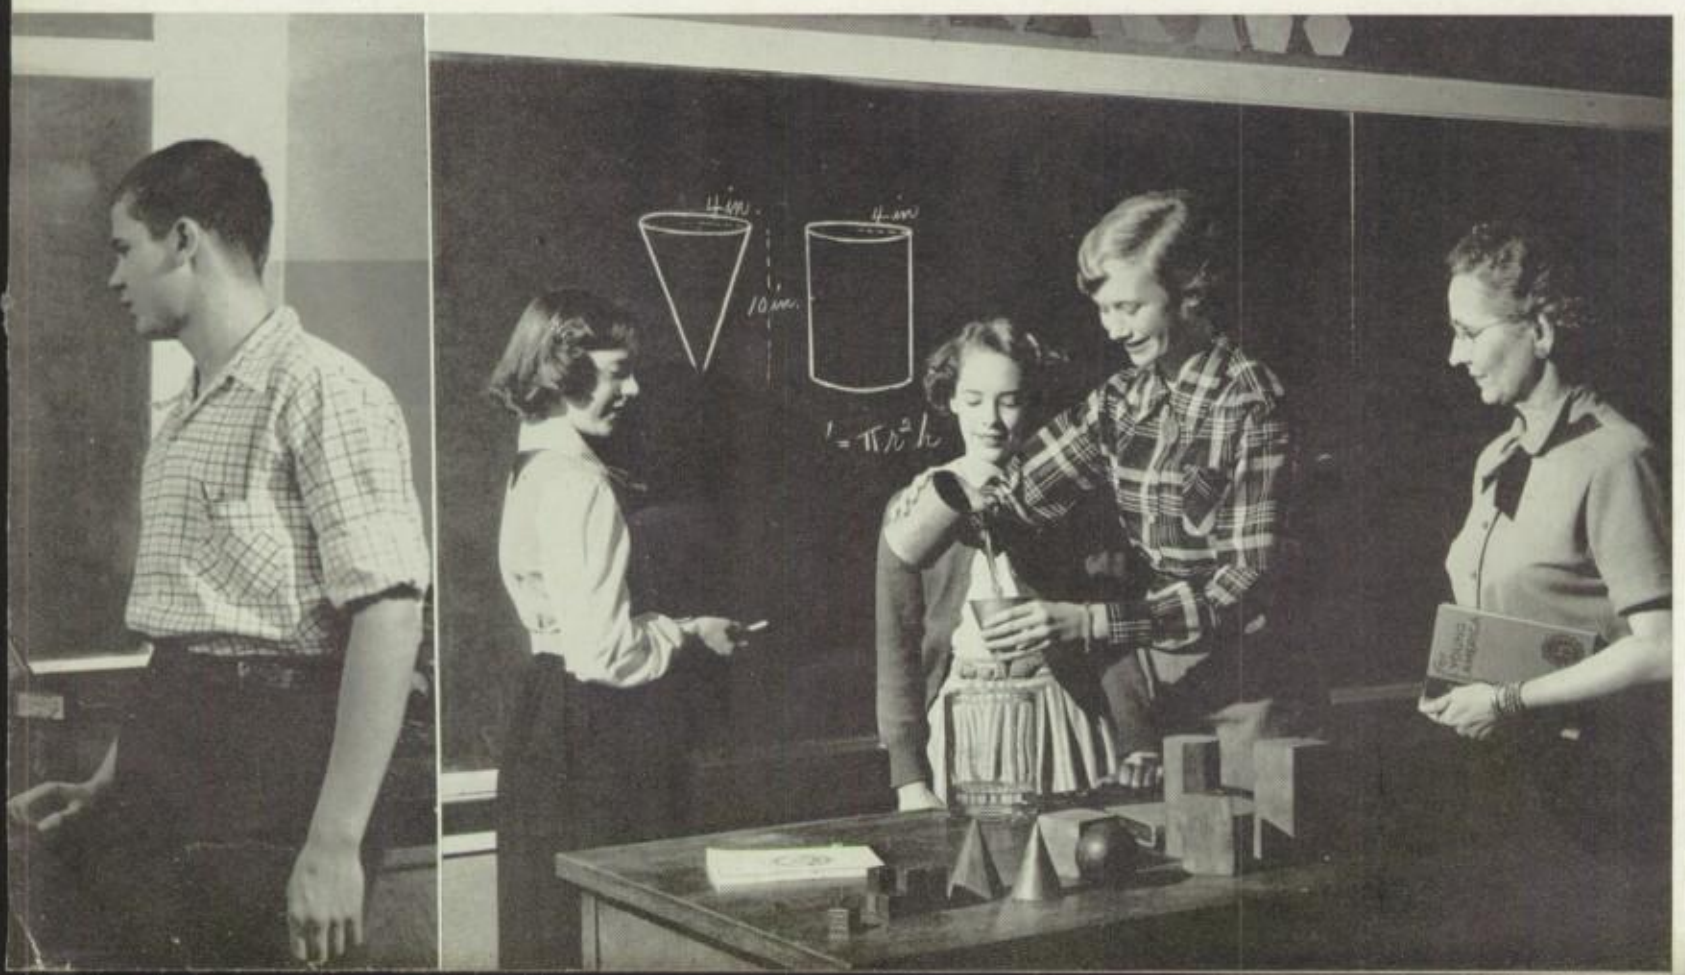


Fundamentals and techniques are developed by talented craftsmen in sports and journalism.

High Student to be a noisy, squirming bit of humanity who is always rushing through the halls during fourth bell playing tag. However, he fails to realize that these same bits of humanity provide almost one half of the volume of the cheers in the football and basketball games, that the places in their clubs vacated by the Seniors are taken over by these same students in a year or two because they know their way around Withrow, that some of these "e-flats" and "effies" help to fill out the one hundred and twenty piece band and some even star in the Minstrels. Here in our Junior High the spirit of Withrow is planted and the flourishing seed grows in fertile soil to come forth flowering into the future leaders of Withrow scholastically, athletically and also socially.

SHIPS IN LIFE AT "LITTLE" WITHROW

The comprehension of volumes (not books) is achieved with explicit aid of an object lesson.



An expectant crowd gasps; tension is great; Look, he's soaked! The rope is sliding; don't give up—E-flats win!

THEY BUILD WITHROW'S

The student body decided early in the year that they wanted championship teams and wouldn't be content with anything short of their great expectations. To attain these high standards, requires great players, plus a coach who excels in leadership and has an abundance of patience. Freshmen coaches get young boys that lack ability but make it up in determination. Reserve coaches have the boys that train diligently to make varsity. Varsity is the finished product. These boys represent us in the eyes of Cincy's sports fans.

ATHLETES OF TOMORROW

The extra curricular sports clubs of Withrow girls merit all time devoted to them, both by their coaches and the participants. But what makes the clubs attract all this zeal? Why, the high standards, of course! Each year these leaders extend their lofty ideals. Miss Robinson and Mrs. Sallwasser limit their groups to the top fifty talented, in order to have quality instead of quantity. Mrs. Lally and Miss Blasberg expect the finest performances from hikers and bowlers and from the other parts of G.A.A.

WITHROWITES SPARKLE AT THE THOUGHT

The power packed Tiger team romped over opponents for the major part of the season with only one calamity—when they were pierced by the lance of a Cavalier. The team spirit was exceedingly high, owing much to the cheering and encouragement of the student body. Every game was attended by crowds of enthusiastic backers. There were several vivacious pep assemblies during the season. The cheers slowed down after the mishap with the Cavaliers, but as soon as the students knew the team's spirit was not injured, they began all over and went on to victory. The opponents fell before the Tigers like grass before a lawn mower. These victories meant the great P.H.S.L. Championship award. The coaches, caretakers, and managers should also receive credit for building one of the best football records ever produced at Withrow High School.

Pep assemblies occuring during the season help to raise the team's morale and the spirit of the students.

WITH THE REOPENING OF SCHOOL, WE

Withrow 33—Reading 14; Sept. 14 at Withrow; TD—Schoonover 2; Williams 2; Drapp 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 3.
Tigers went wild in the opening tilt, showing promise of a successful season.

Withrow 7—Xavier 7; Sept. 21 at X.U.; TD—Jones 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 1.
If you want to give excuses, you could say Withrow tied because of penalties, but let's just say the Tigers weren't in shape.

Withrow 20—Purcell 47; Sept. 28 at X.U.; TD—Penn 1; Gaenge 1; Plunkett 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 2.
No excuses. Tigers just fought hard but lost a heart-breaking game.

Withrow 18—Shortridge 12; Oct. 5 at Withrow; TD—Plunkett 1; Jones 2.
The blue devils of Shortridge came to Withrow's home grounds this year to fall once more before our rip-snortin' team.

Withrow 39—Walnut Hills 7; Oct. 12 at Withrow; TD—Barnett 1; Jones 2; Greene 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 3.
The Tigers upset "Nut Hills" in an all ground-play game. This evened up the score from the '50 season, to the satisfaction of loyal Withrowites.

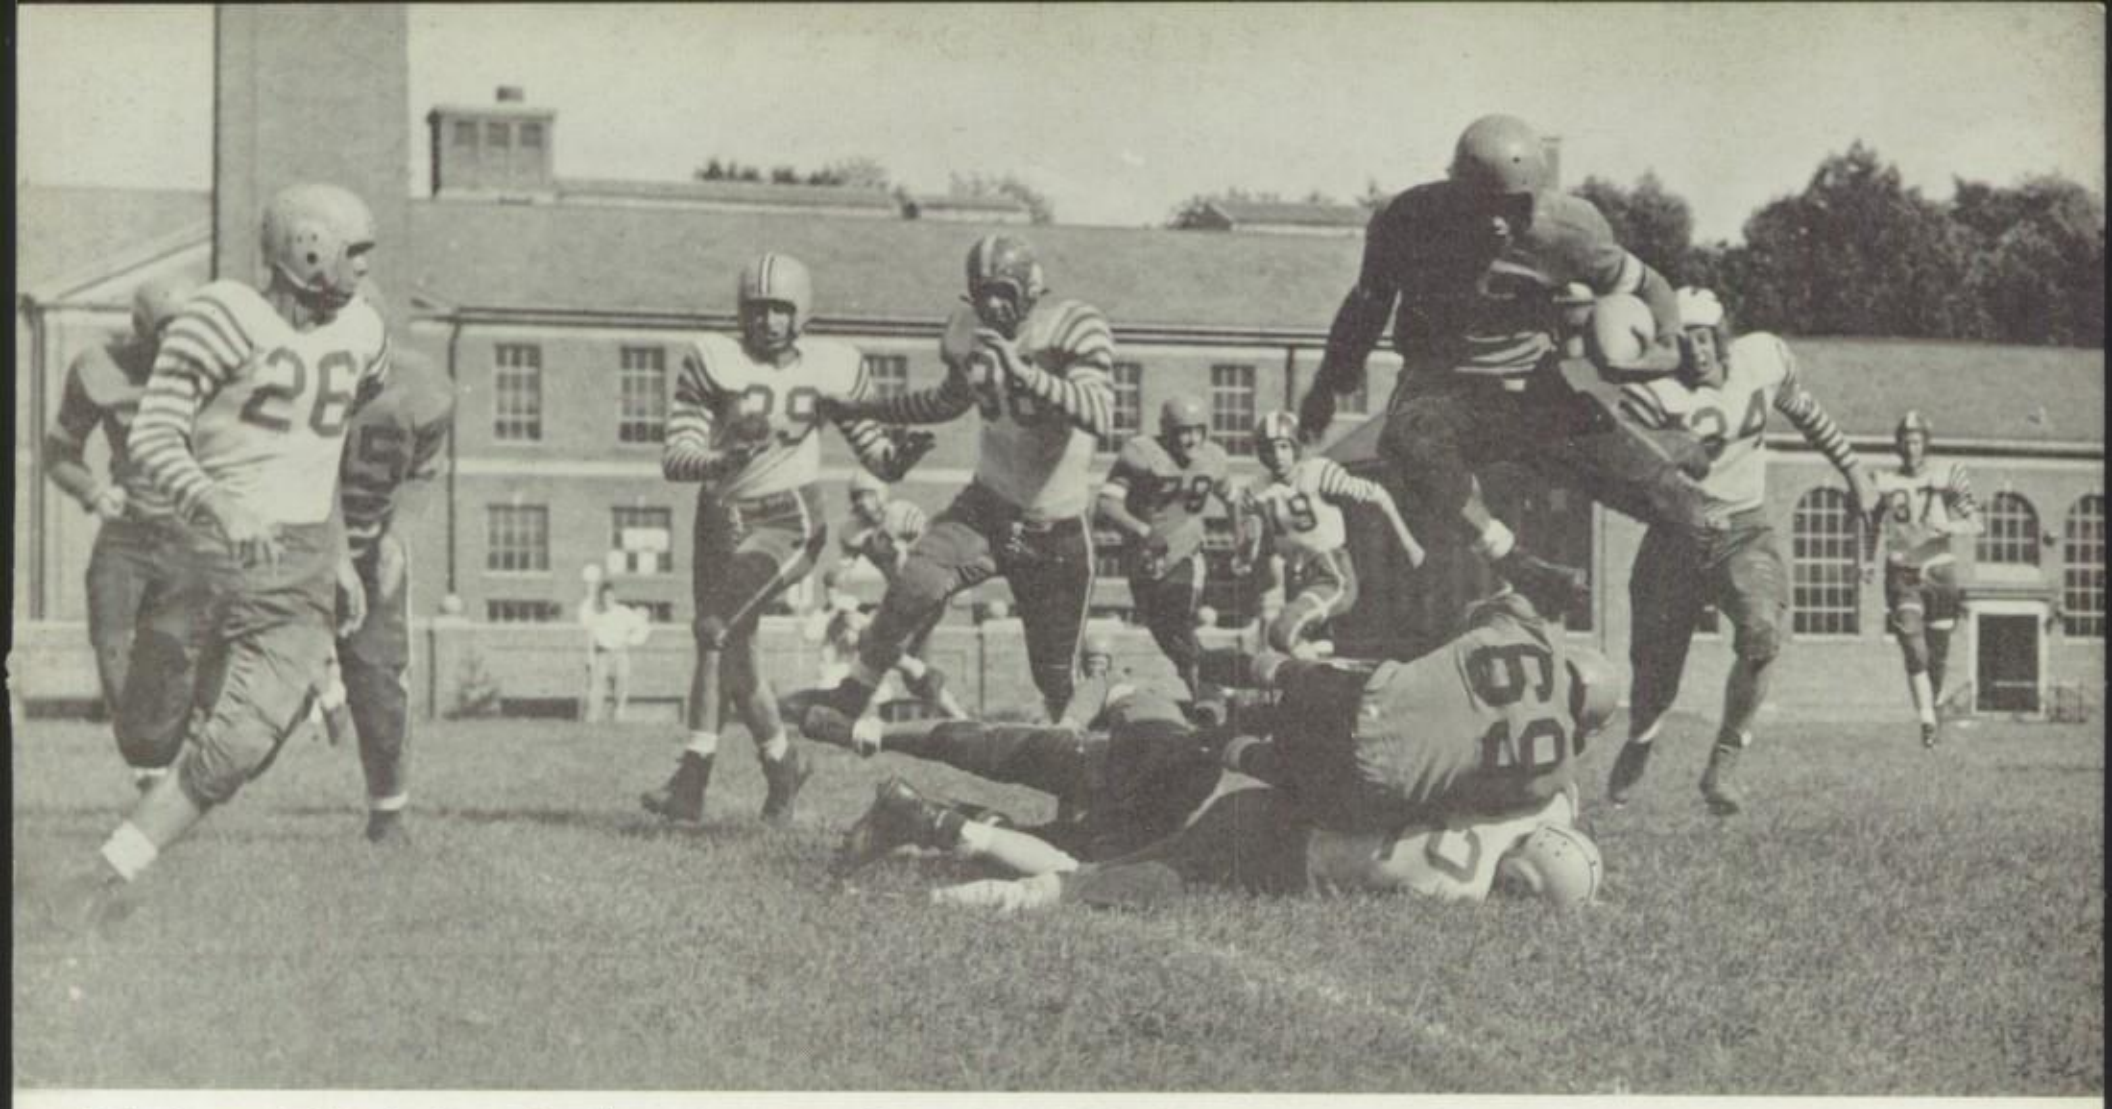
Withrow 34—Western Hills 6; Oct. 19 at Withrow; TD—Jones 1; Barnett 1; Schoonover 1; Carter 1; Drapp 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 4.
It was a big day for the Tigers as they beat Western for the first time since '44.

Withrow 31—Woodward 0; Oct. 25 at Withrow; TD—Schoonover 2; Carter 1; Sturgeon 1; Drapp 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 1.
Our team showed its great supremacy by winning a game rated as a toss-up by the experts.

Withrow 40—Hughes 7; Nov. 5 at U.C.; TD—Jones 2; Plunkett 1; Barnett 1; Vaughn 1; Schoonover 1; Extra Points—Schoonover 4.
Withrow beat their oldest big rival once again. This was the 31st renewal of the Withrow-Hughes football series.

Withrow 15—Central 7; Nov. 11 at Withrow; TD—Barnett 1; Penn 1; Extra Points—1.
The undefeated Central Hornet team was humbled before the Tigers. This clinched the P.H.S.L. championship for the Big Bengals.

Thus the Tigers completed one of their most successful seasons in their history. They placed several men on the all-city teams and won first place in the P.H.S.L. Next year looks like another big year for our hard-hitting team. Luck!

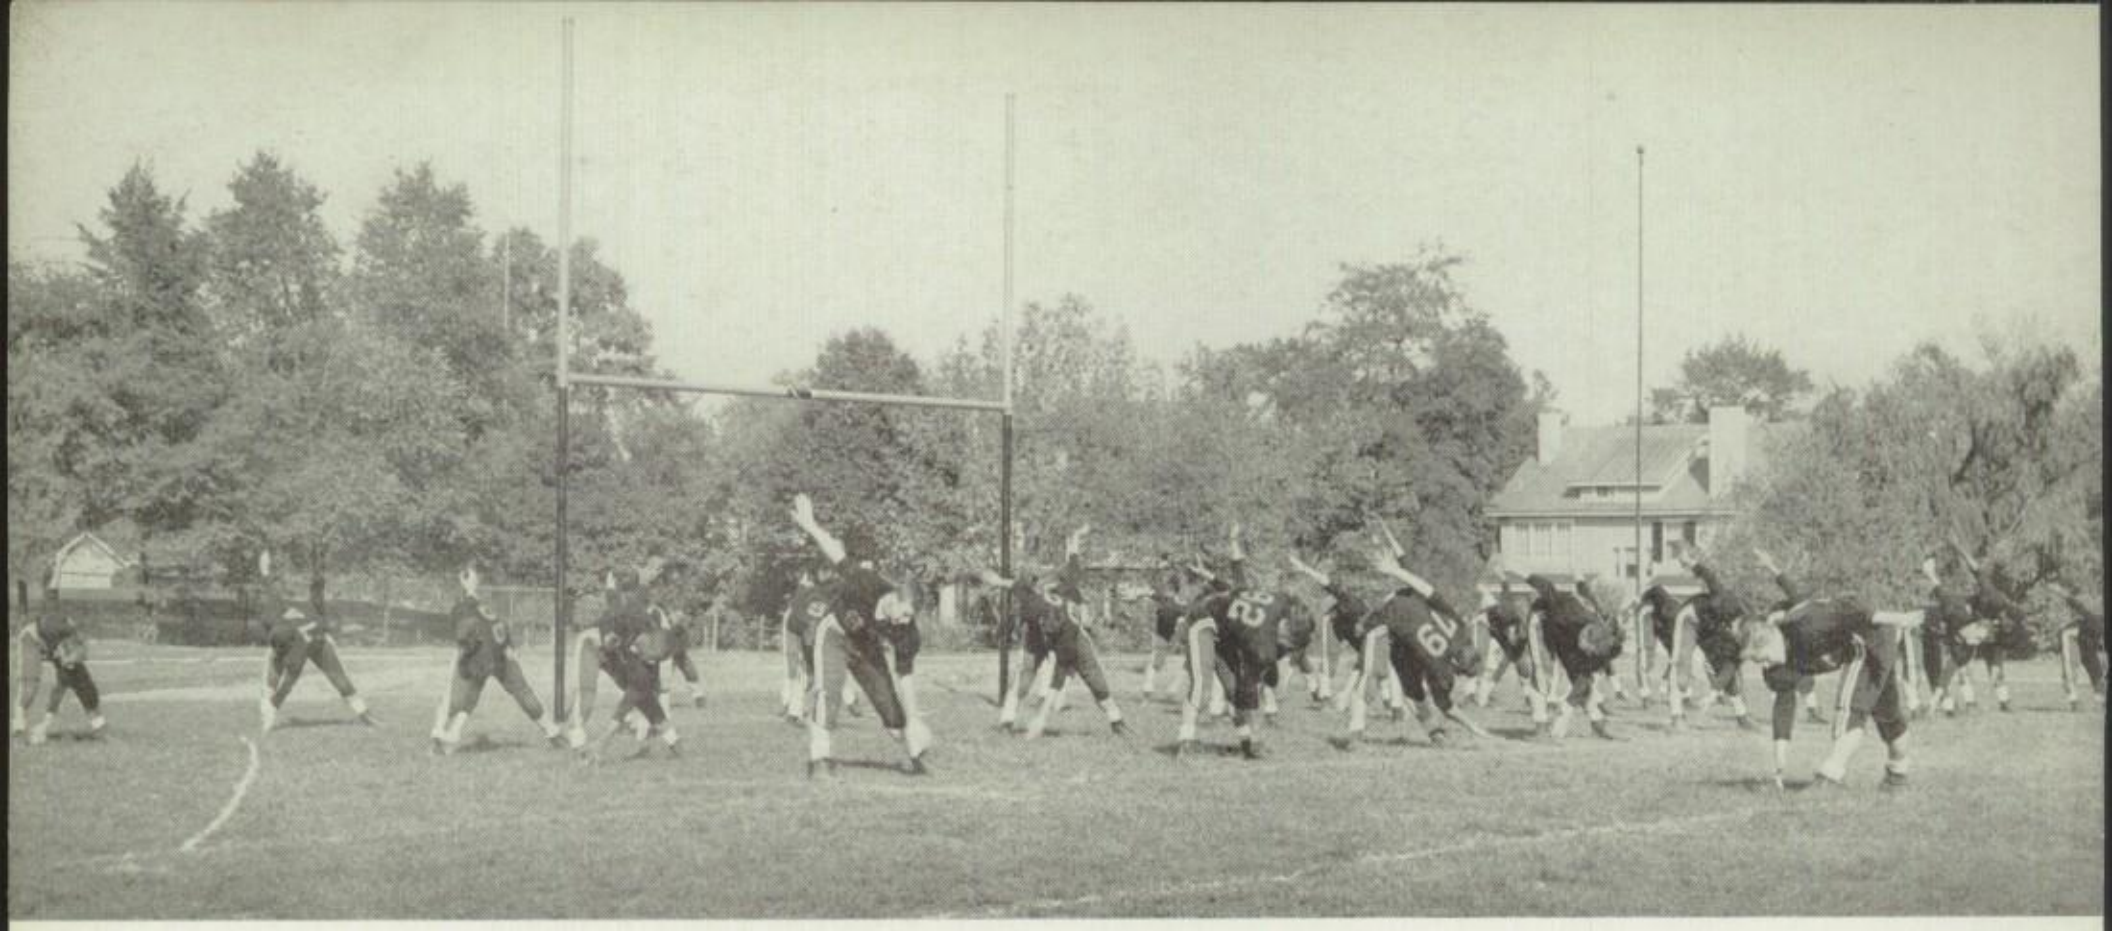


Bob Jones, halfback, leaps Reading player to gain yardage. This kind of playing is what downed opponents.

HAVE THE BEGINNING OF THE FOOTBALL

The black and orange eleven chalked up an exceptionally good record with 7 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie for the 51-52 season. Placing first in P.H.S.L. and having several all-city players were only a few of their creditable achievements. They tallied 223 points, to the opponent's 107; gained 1,419 yards rushing, to the opponent's 538; and passed for 251 yards to the opponent's 223. Behind the creditable marks are long hours of hard work by everyone. The experts underrated Withrow until the Woodward game. A memorable win was the 40-7 Hughes score.

Drapp skirts end with Carter and Upson running interference against Woodward. Note excellent blocking.



The team not only exercises before games but also every day. Captains Upson and Schoonover leading the Tigers.

The tiger cubs under the new reserve coach, Mr. Hauck, chalked up a season record of 3 wins and 4 losses. The team placed third in the P.H.S.L. behind Western Hills and Hughes. Under able leadership the cub players are taught the "tricks of the trade." A big disappointment occurred when the annual Purcell-Withrow reserve football game was postponed. A memorable victory over Roger Bacon of 19-0 and a hard fought victory over Central of 8-6 made up for their defeat at the hands of Anderson varsity. Coach Hauck has turned out some promising players who will undoubtedly be heading the list of varsity players next year. Keep your eyes on these boys. An important part of any team's spirit are the cheerleaders. They crack the whip which controls the enthusiasm of the student body. They spend hours working on new cheers and organizing the cheers. Wow! Do you see what I see? The major and majorettes are another important part of team spirit. Can you see why?

The band demonstrates its musical and marching ability—the football managers organize the equipment.

HOURS OF BACK-BREAKING PRACTICE.

This year's team marked up a memorable record of six wins and one loss. Mr. Hedges' "boys" showed the results of his fine coaching by placing first in the P.H.S.L., tie with Hughes. The "Tiger Cubs" massacred St. Xavier by a score of 28-0 and Central went down before this powerful freshmen team by a score of 6-0. Three times they crossed the goal line — two were called back. The Tiger yearlings met their equal in Hughes going down to defeat 28-25 in an action packed game. Keep your eyes on these boys because some may jump up to the varsity next year Also, we must not fail to mention the marching band. Withrow's band, under the direction of George Smith, is well known for their novel ideas and fine music throughout the state. An important part of any team are the managers. These boys are in charge of equipment, act as waterboys, assist referees, keep track of statistics and minister to the team's wants.

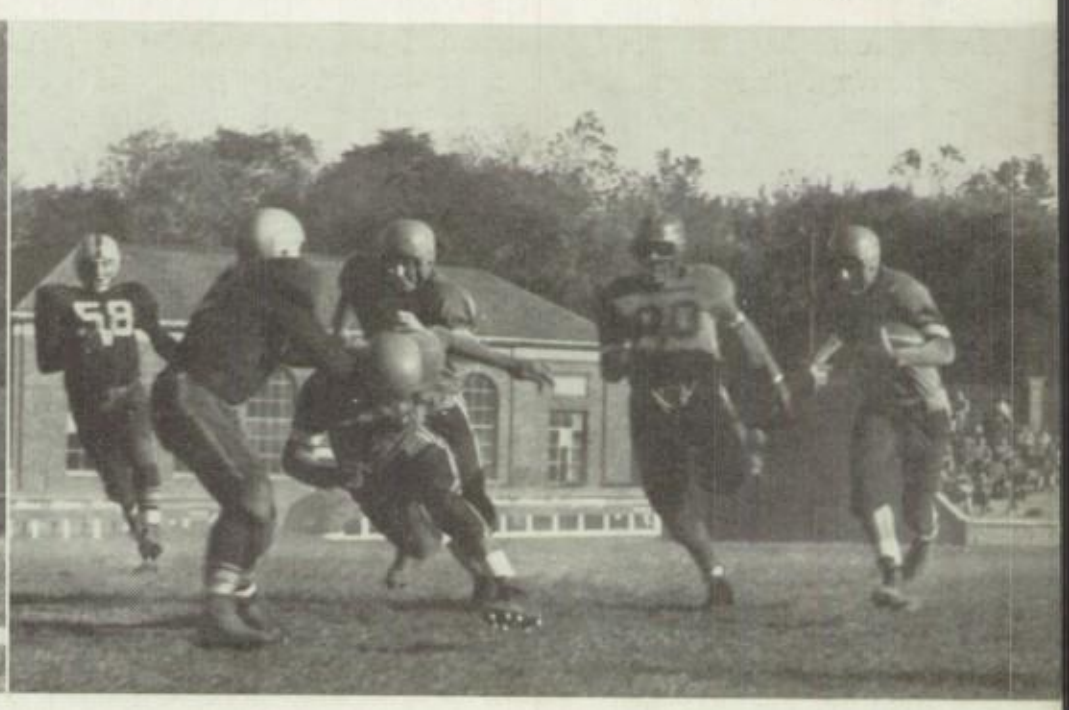
THE FALL OF '51

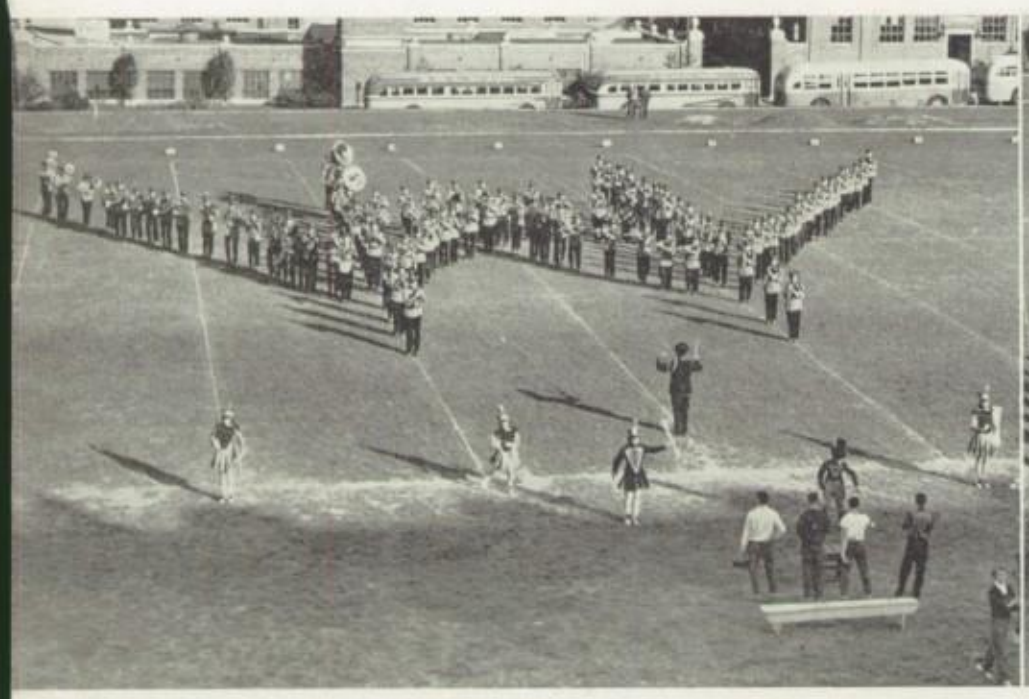
Here is one of our spirit-raising pep assemblies.

The enthusiastic crowds, the colorful costumes, and well-organized skits add to the Withrow pep assemblies.

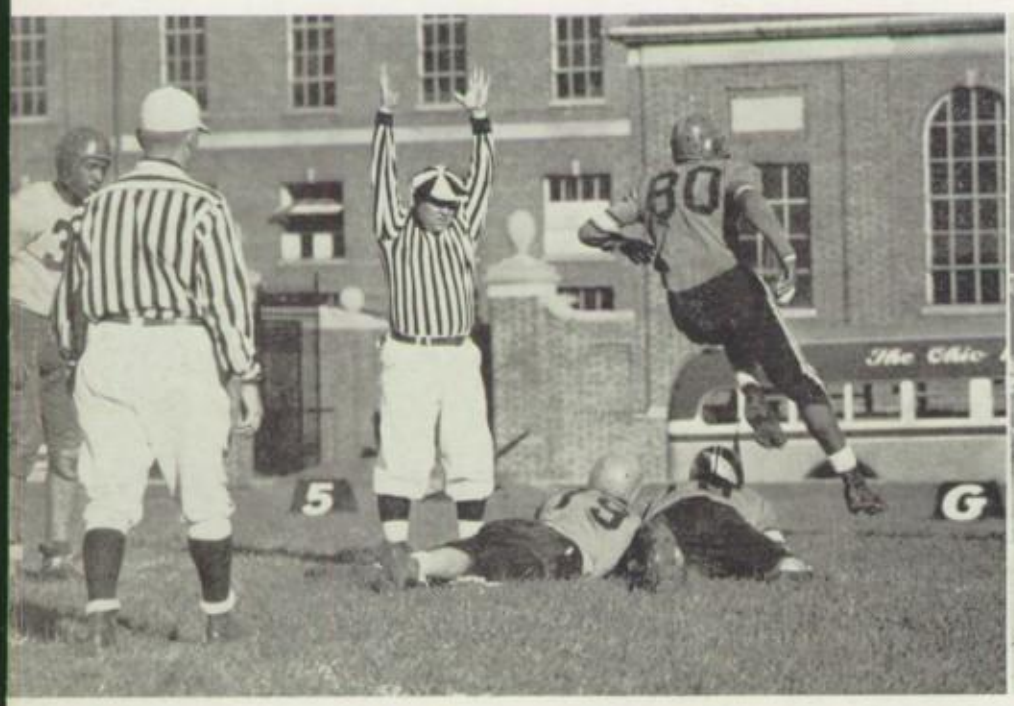


Unity of students combined with the unity of Withrow's team made this a big football season at Withrow.

WON'T BE FORGOTTEN BY WITHROWITES.



Tricky band formations pulled from Smittie's hat—executed with professional precision make Withrow shine.



Another touchdown, another victory and a spirited march to the square and back are well remembered by all.

WHO THEMSELVES PARTICIPATE IN THESE SPORTS.

It's fall again; and with it come the beginning of school, football, and the difficult sport, cross-country. This year the orange and black harriers, despite being mostly sophomores and juniors, did a remarkable job. In the city meet, which is a combination of the scores of three successive Saturday runs at Avon Fields, Coach Nimmo's lettermen, Tom Gillespie, Bill Bailey, Dave Roebuck, Al Halverstadt, Ron Hornback, and Charlie Wood, took third, loosing only to Hughes and Western Hills, both of whom had fine teams. The muscle men of the gym team proved themselves an excellent squad by romping over Central and losing to Hughes by only 6 points. Hughes hasn't been beaten for 15 years. Ronny Waldon, junior tumbler, and Richard Dale, on senior sidehorse, won first place in every meet they entered. Mr. Hauck did a fine job in his first year.

COMPETITION—THE KEYNOTE OF SPORTS

Precision, pep, and, perseverance are produced by the fellows who meet each Monday starting in September to bowl. In January, the big Interscholastic Meet started, where the Withrow Keglers came in third place, against tough competition. Fervor was encouraged by awarding medals to the one who had highest average, highest single game total, highest three game total, to the most outstanding freshman, and the most improved player. Hats off to the top Keglers and their superb coach. Fore! That's the cry you hear as the Tiger Golf team slams its way through another successful season. With almost the same teams that last year took the PHSL for the seventh straight time and placed second in the state, Coach Owens is looking forward to big things from these five golfers who can handle the clubs as well as experts.

GOLF: Standing — H. Schnitzer; G. Burress; T. Gillespie; Mr. Owens; J. Schnell; E. Chandler. Kneeling — J. Hall; W. Millar; D. Moore.

BOWLING: Back Row—J. Schnell; W. Millar; J. Heuser; Mr. Owens; J. Truitt. Front Row—D. Snyder; T. Ludwig; S. Jenike; K. Lacefield.

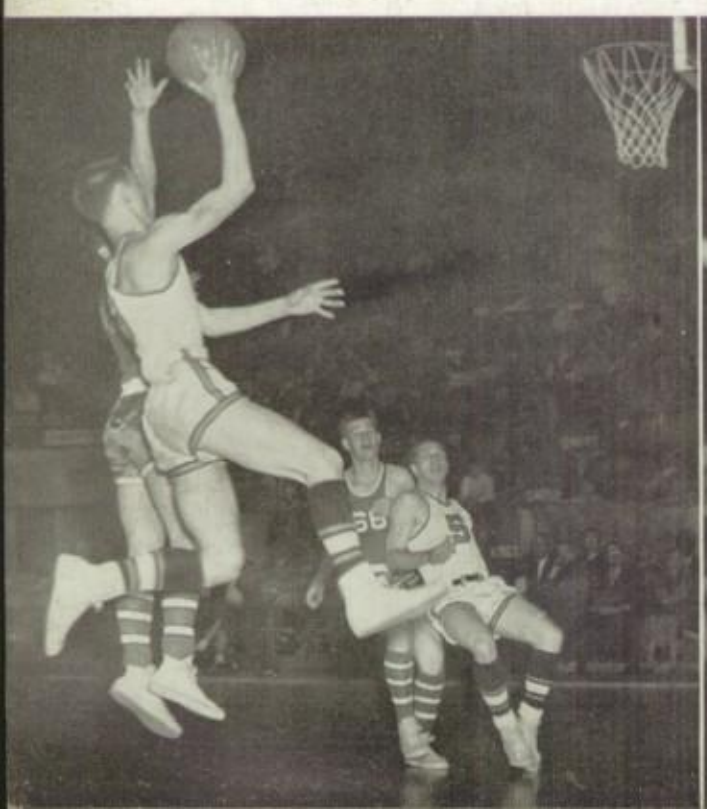
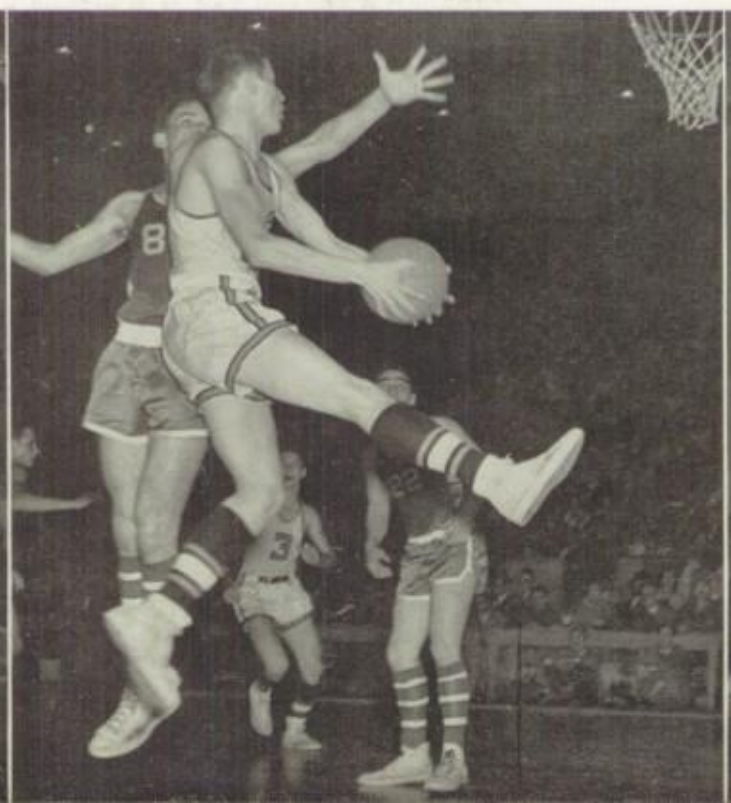
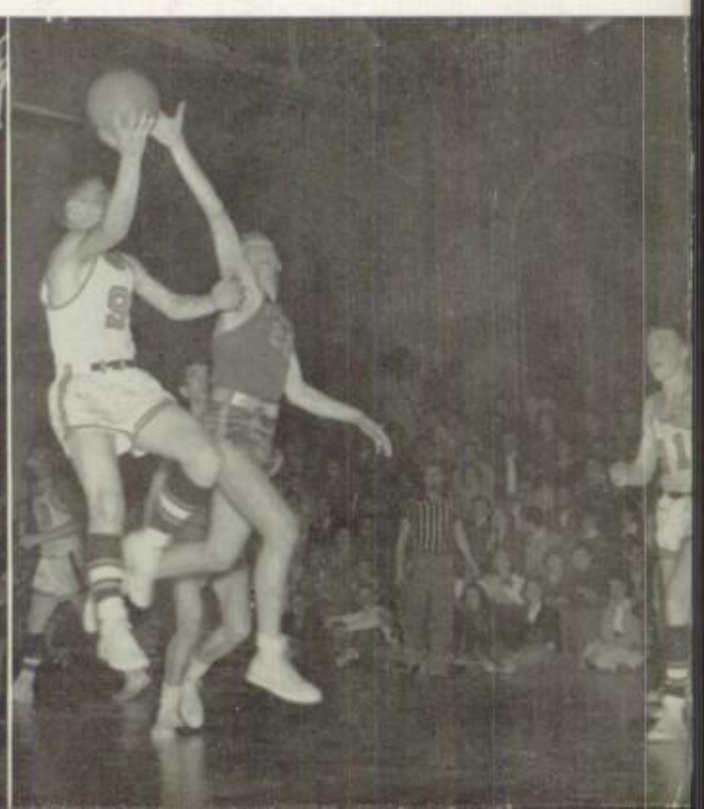
KING BASKETBALL REIGNS IN TIGERTOWN,

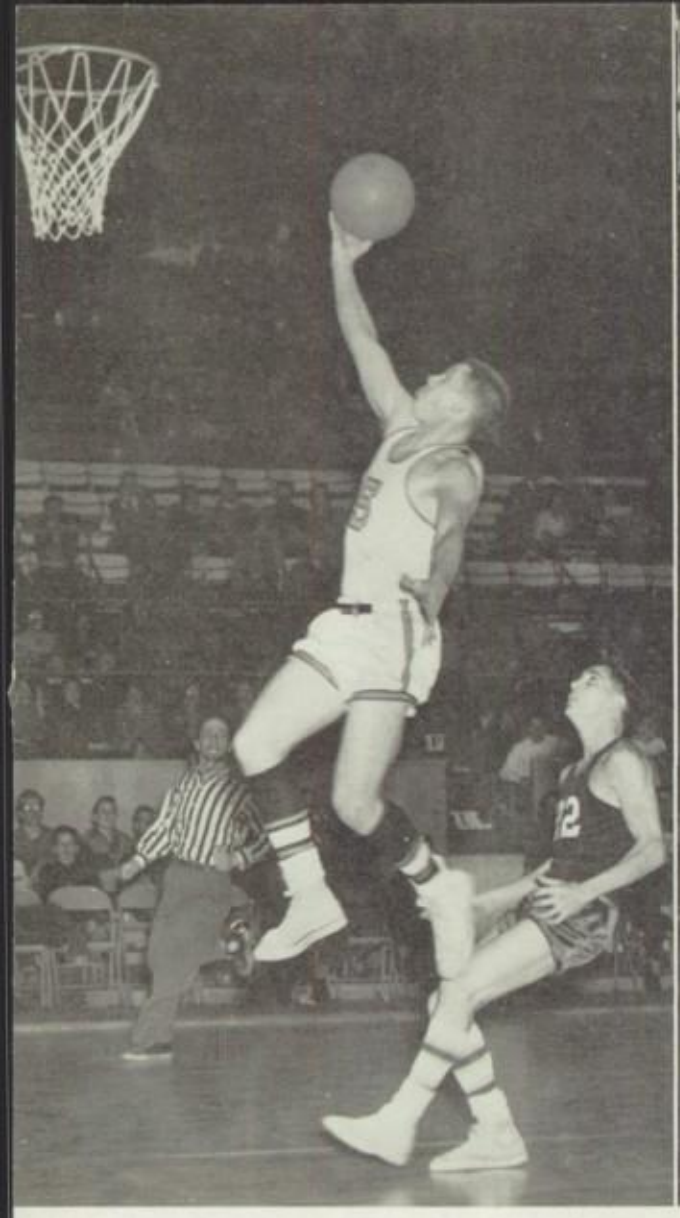
Swish! the "ferocious felines'" cage prowess was symbolized in that one word. The theory in basketball is to propel the leather sphere through the hoop. At this the 1951-52 edition of the Withrow Tigers was incredible. In 25 contests the cat cagers meshed 1564 points, an average of 62.5 per game. Led by Dave Plunkett with 476 points and captain Willie Ernst who pitched in 370, the aggregation posted a 21-4 mark for the campaign in which was included an all-conquering 9-1 slate in PHSL, a district, and a regional championship, and a trip to Columbus for the state tournament, where it took Middletown, the subsequent state champ, to stop Withrow's terrific Tigers.

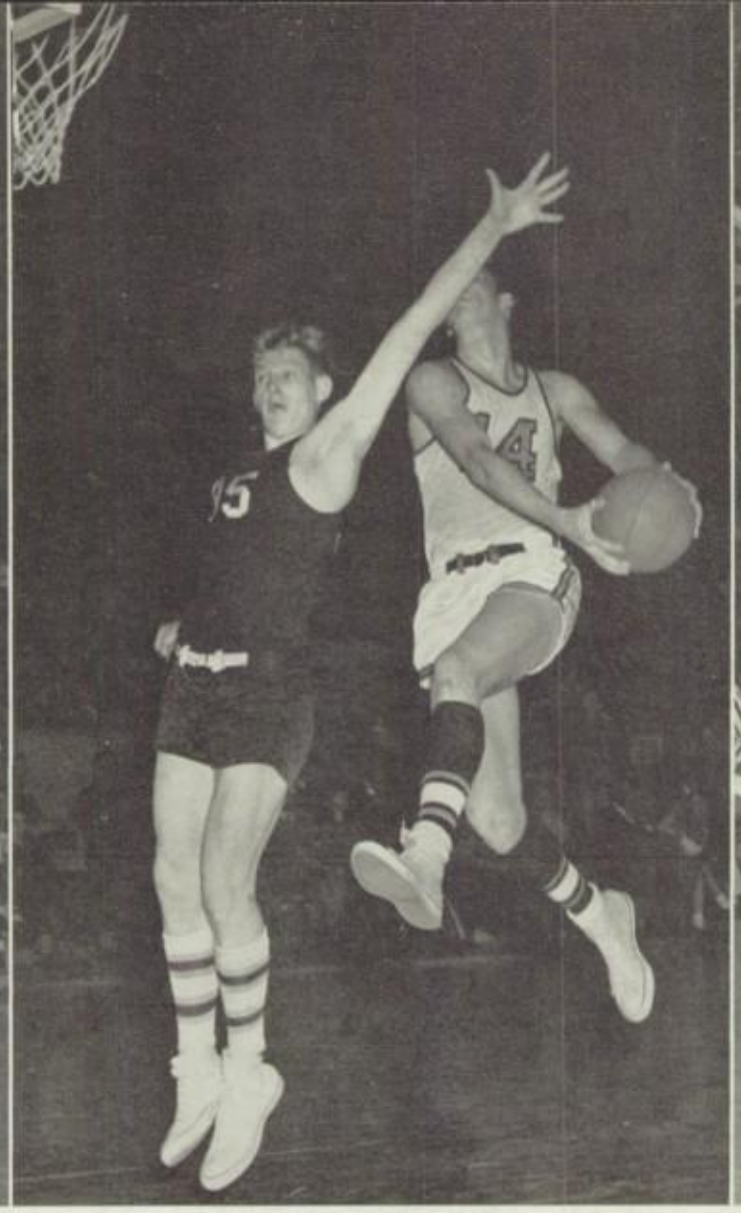
Surman makes two of the ten points he made against West Milton as McDaniel watches. "On 88" shouts the official as Ernst is fouled in attempting his underhand shot. Work (9) flips one up despite the opponent.

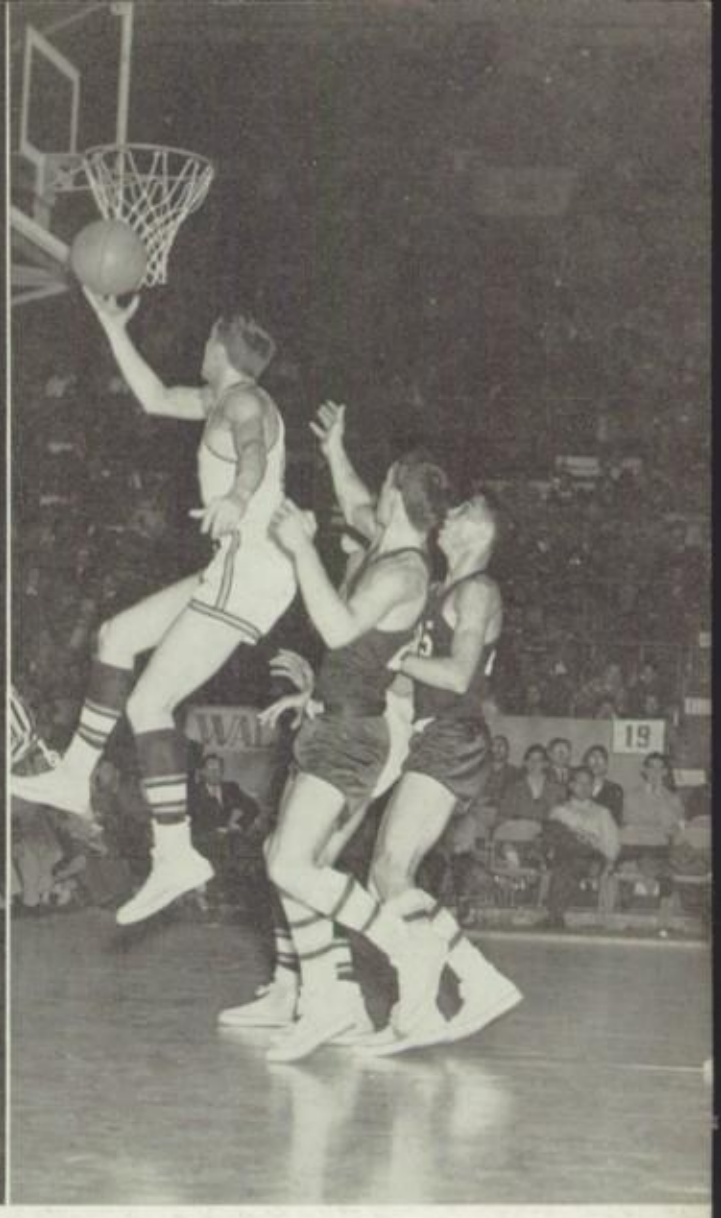








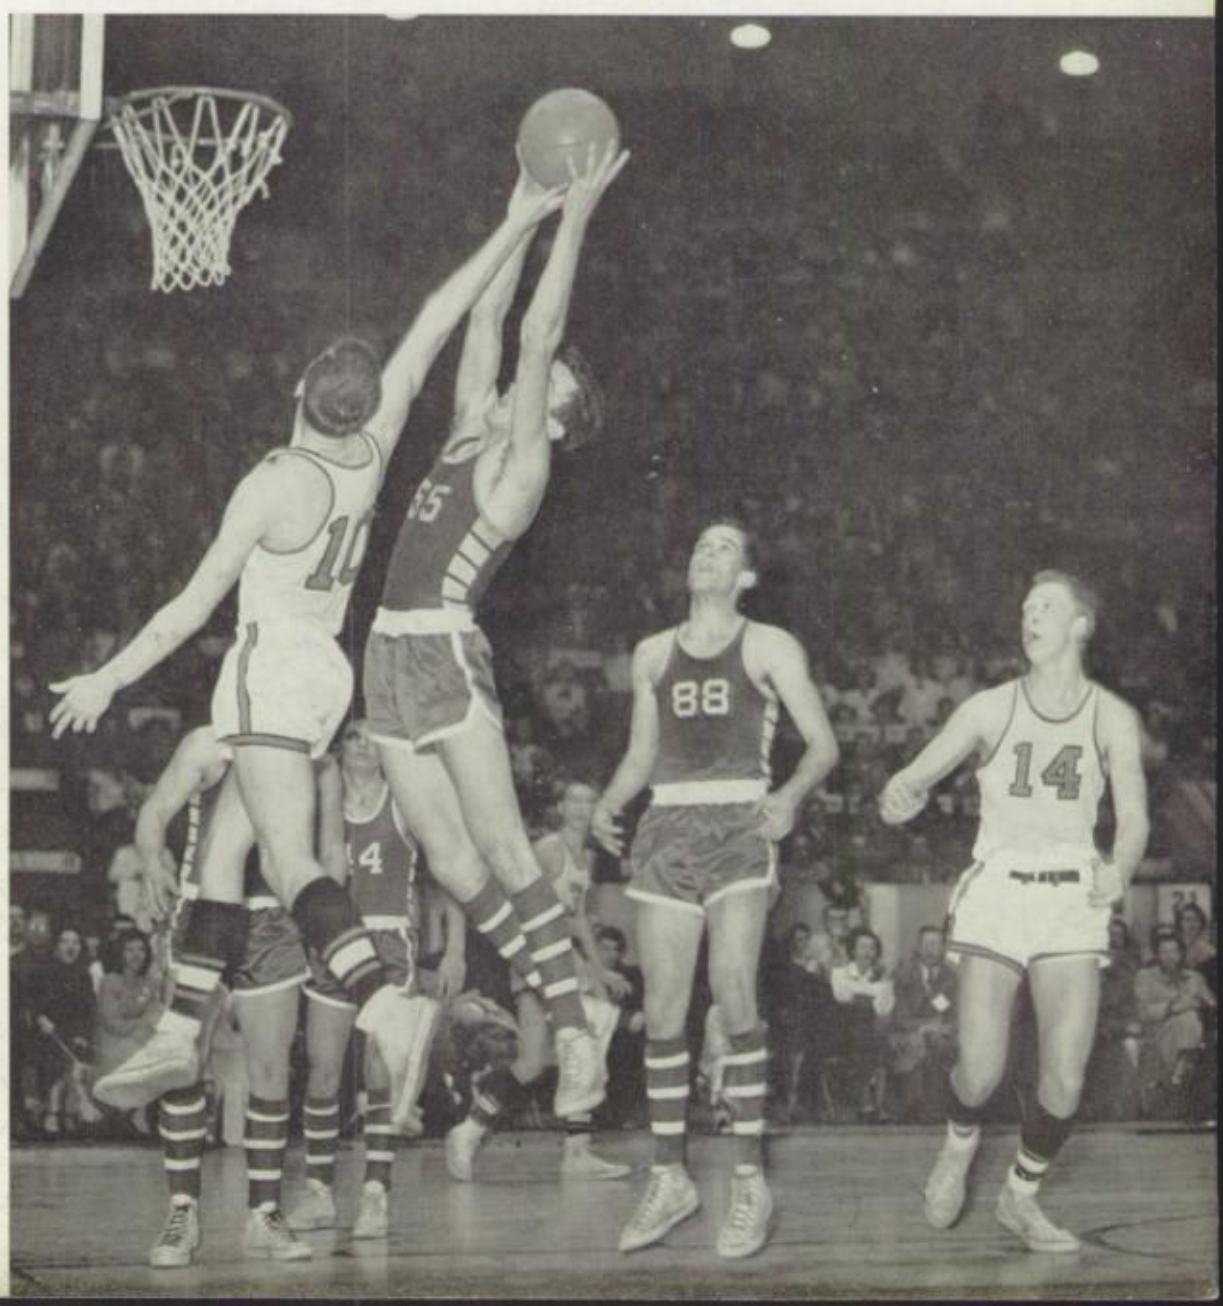


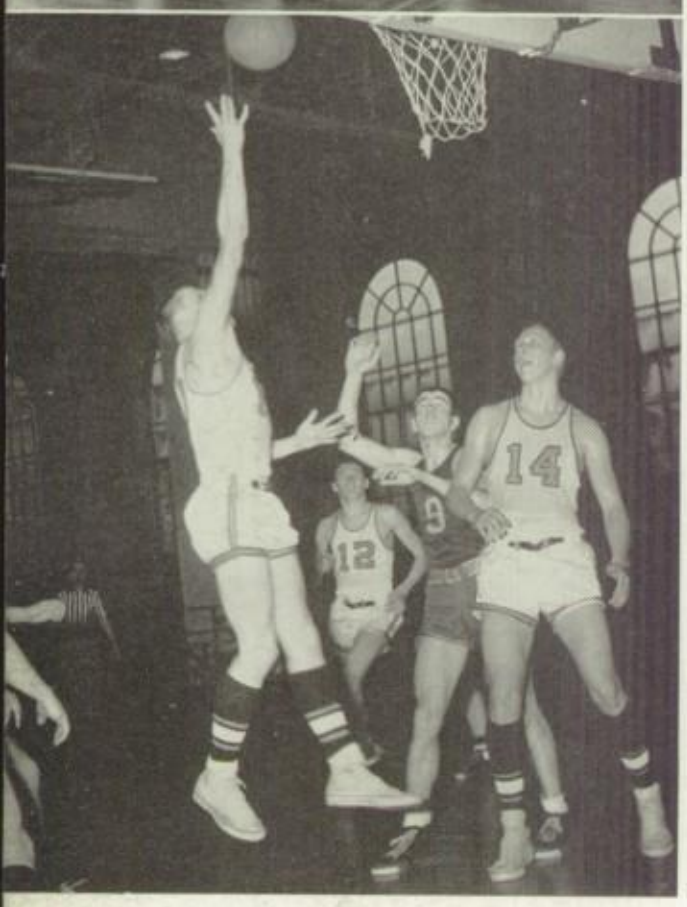


No. 22 can only stare in amazement as McDaniel lays in this one hander. Plunkett's shot went wide but his later free throws connected. Hofferth drives in to add two pts. in Withrow's 75-47 win over West Hi.

HOME OF THE "FEROCIOUS FELINES."

West Milton just couldn't cope with the Ernst-Plunkett duo.





McDaniel sinks his favorite shot; Ernst helps beat Central 84-47.

WILLIE ERNST G 6-1 170 Sr. — captain — all city — all state honorable mention—top free throw pct. on team—370 pts.

DAVE PLUNKETT C 6-6 205 Sr.—most valuable player — all city — honorable mention, all state — high scorer — 476 pts.

BOB SURMAN G 5-10 150 Sr. — received trophy for being most improved player — good shot — aggressive — 202 pts.

DEFEATS. THE BENGALS CAME

The wild excitement of "Tournament Time" began to pulsate through Withrow's halls late in February, as the Tigers clawed their way to the Public High title and then swept into the District Tournament. After eliminating a weak Central team 72-18 and a somewhat stronger Elder five 62-43, Withrow faced the vaunted Bib Blue from Hamilton. Although Hamilton led most of the game, the fired up Tigers roared back to take a double overtime win 55-53. The Orange and Black then rode their winning wave over Roger Bacon 49-44 in the district finals, West Milton in the regionals, and into the State Tournament. Columbus Aquinas, the tournament's Cinderella team, was the next victim. This victory placed Withrow in the semi-finals with powerful Middletown, and although the Tigers lost 67-48, they proved they were Withrow's greatest team.

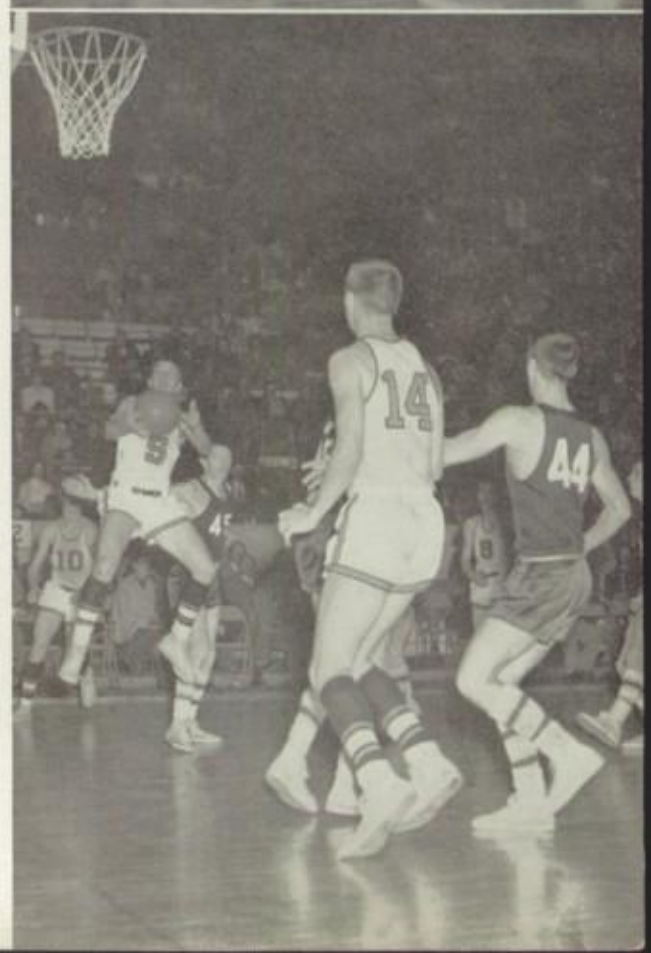
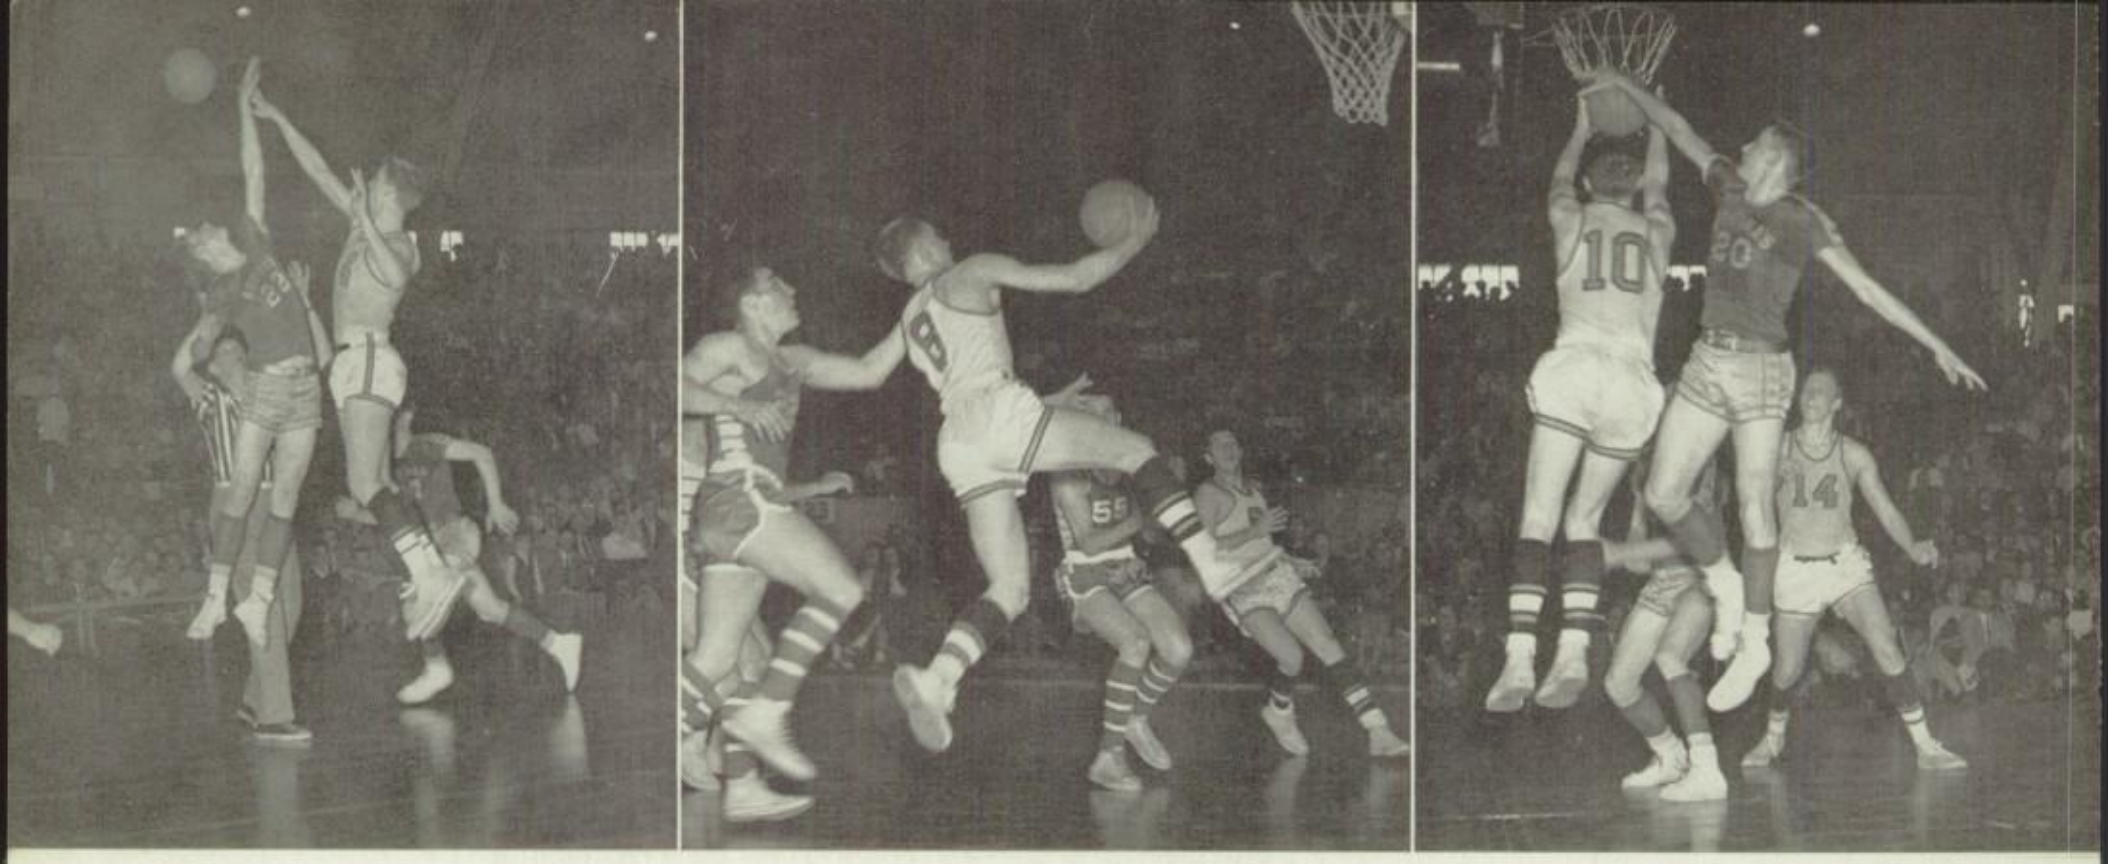
In the Tiger's last PHSL tilt vs. West Hi, played at packed Cincinnati Gardens, result was obvious. The pictures tell why. Ernst (10) drops his accurate push through the cords; evading his man, Plunkett (14) goes in for an easy layup; McDaniel (5) swipes a defensive rebound.

DICK SPANN F 5-10 145 Sr. — nicknamed "Kangaroo Kid" — fast — excellent rebounder — came from Maryland — 15 pts.

RONNIE OTT G 5-9 145 Jr. — driving — aggressive type of player — probably see more action next year — 29 pts.

LARRY McCORD G 5-8 140 Jr. — accurate passer — hindered somewhat by a hip and knee injury — hard charger — 9 pts.





Plunkett couldn't avoid this Aquinas player but the Columbus boys didn't have it and lost. Jim Hofferth fights his way in for a driving layup. Ernst sneaks one in under no. 20's arm, helping Withrow win 61-52.

The Tiger cubs, working with a new skipper at the helm namely Mr. Bill Smyth, pulled a successful season out of the fire after a slow start. In an attempt to master the difficult techniques of a fast break, a full court press and, almost no dribbling, the reserves lost several early season games. Nevertheless once started they were hard to stop. Although a total record of 10-6 was only able to place fourth in the PHSL, the team should provide some fine varsity prospects. Will Fey and Dave Sturwold took the scoring honors with 131 and 124 points, respectively.

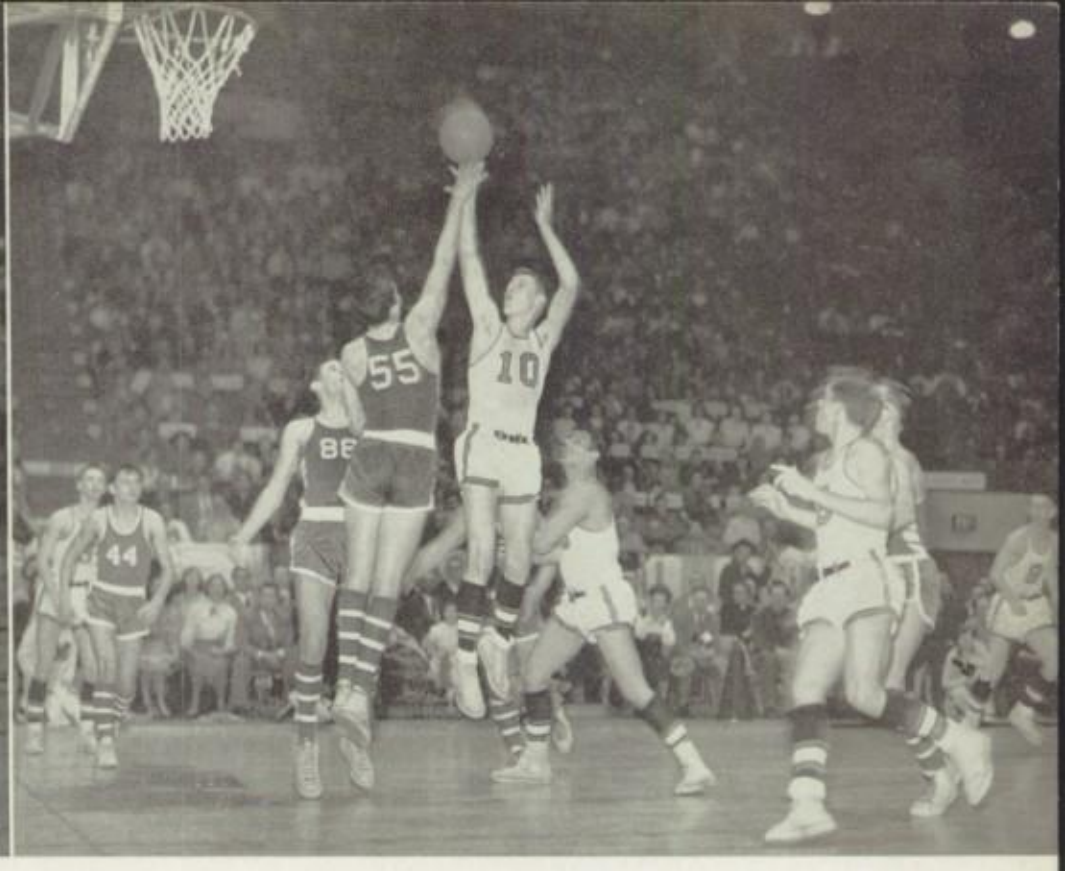
UP WITH THE GREATEST YEAR EVER PUT



"The team is in a huddle. The captain's at the head. The coach gave the signal, and this is what he said, 'I want some action, action, action,'" Withrow Tigers spirited by the hullaballoo plug on to victory.

FRESHMEN BASKETBALL: Row 1—G. Rogers; F. Fox; T. Thompson; A. Manzler; R. Hindman. Row 2—G. Barnet; C. Johnson; P. Matthews; Coach Hedges; G. Masuck; F. Moore; P. Sweeny.

Coach Joe Hedges's "Baby Bengals" had only a fair season for 1951-52, because of the boys' lack of experience. However, several freshmen showed evidences of having some outstanding ability which will be utilized in the future. Phil Matthews, the high scorer and center, Whitey Hindman, Roger Messmer, and Charlie Johnson were the best of the prospects. The 4-7 record posted by the kittens and the first round PHSL tournament defeat were tempered by an upset win over Hughes, a traditional rival and three wins against only two losses during the season in the PHSL.

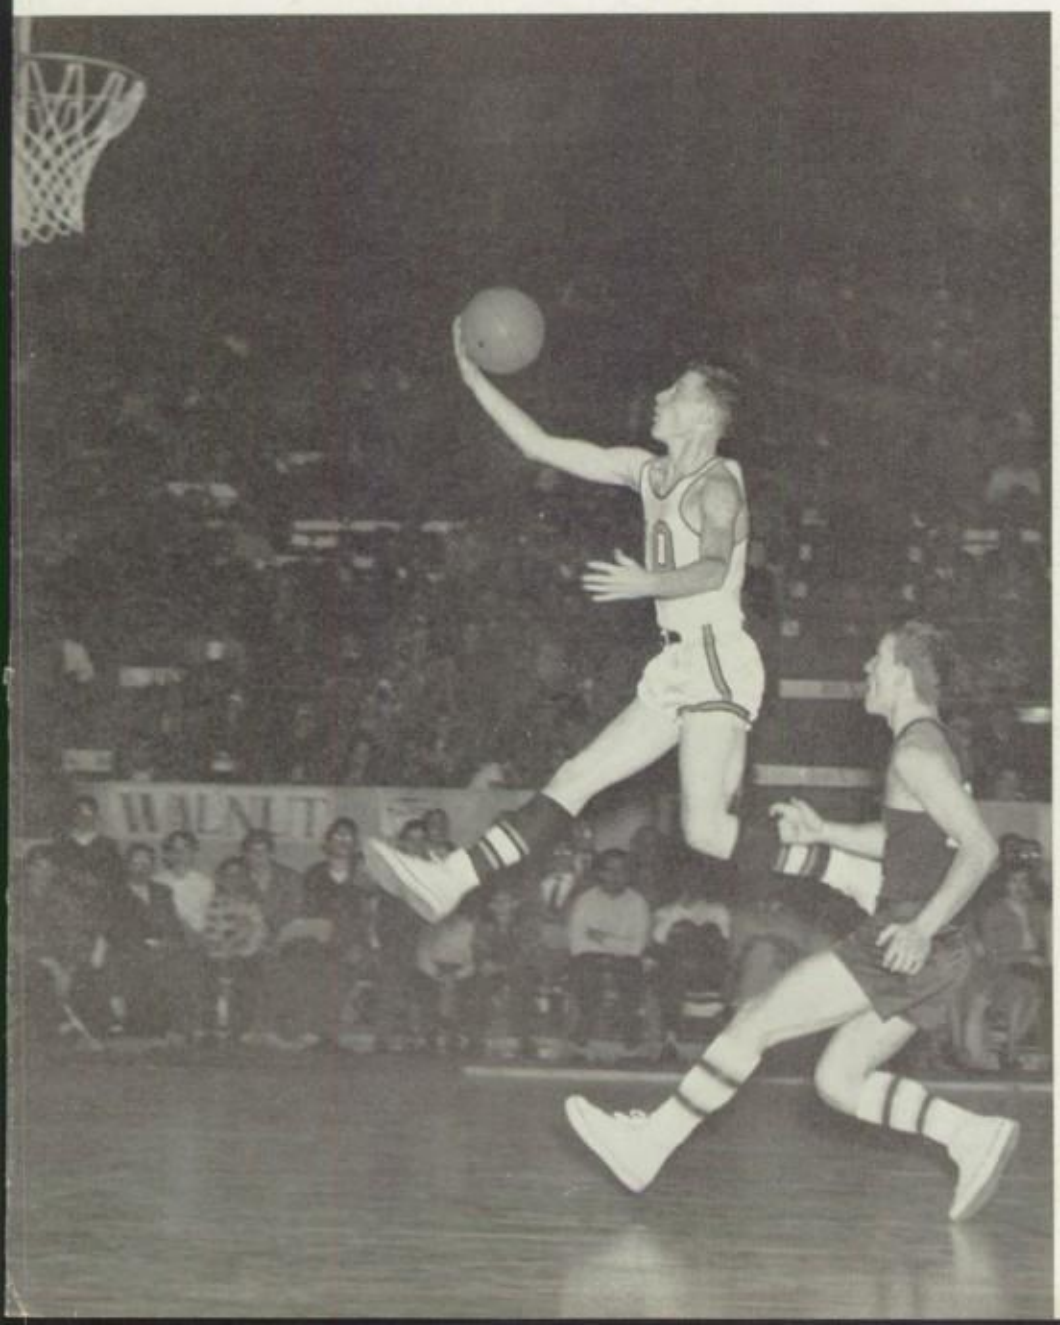
Left—Plunkett reaches over the rim to make this basket at the Cincinnati Gardens. Below—Borcherding (11) screens for Surman (3) while Ernst (10) waits for the rebound. McDaniel scores despite the foul by the unidentified Aquinas defender. "Quit pushing fellas," Surman seems to say as he is forced out of bounds.

FINEST FIVES IN OHIO CLEARLY SHOWS



Hours of hard and constant practicing have turned these swimmers into a shipshape team. The tankmen, coached by Mr. Wirth and his assistant, Mr. Russell, placed fourth in the big district meet and second in the city tournaments. They also did exceptionally well in the dual matches. A new school record was set by the free style relay team. Rod Bradford, an up and coming freshman diver, placed first in both the city and district meets. This was one of the best years the Tigers have seen.

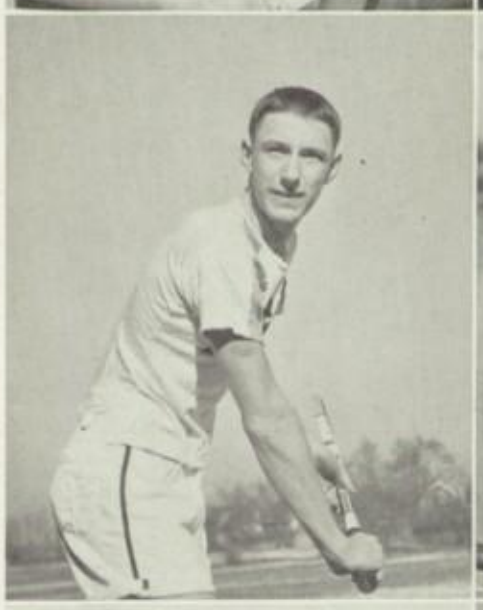
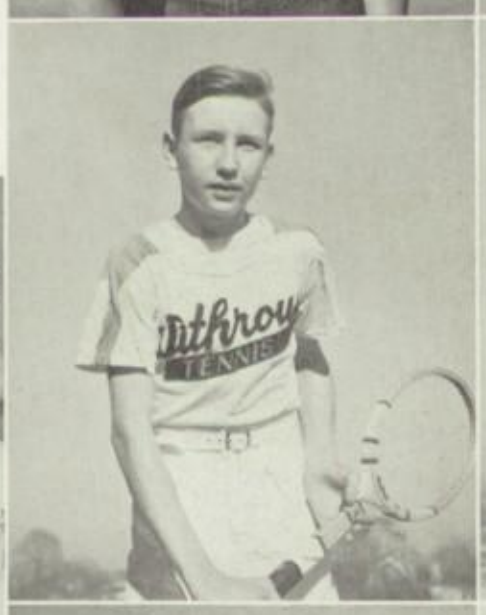
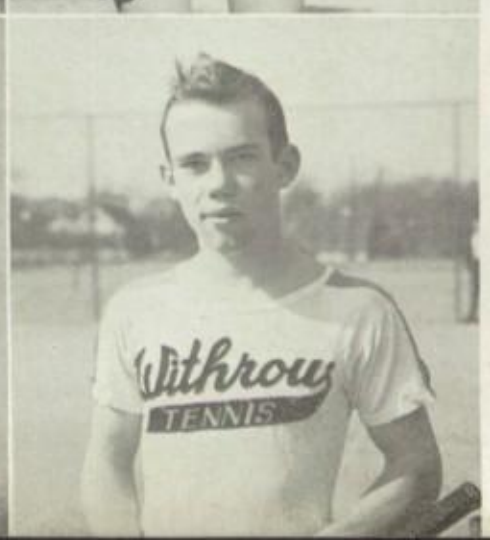
Here it is; game, set, and match point and one of the Bengal netmen is preparing to serve. There it goes for a service all and another victory for the high-flying Withrow tennis team. This year's varsity squad, under the direction of Mr. Harold Sherman is well on its way toward a championship, having won twelve matches against one loss. Playing first singles is Bob Surman while Joe Popp and Ron Seamann respectively hold down second and third singles. The first doubles combination of Doug Craig and Bill Giles is well started on a great season, not having lost a set in thirteen matches. Jack Shewman and Al Swormstedt make up the other doubles set. The junior varsity team develops talent for next year's court team and also forces the senior players to work so that they will not lose their high positions to younger boys.

TENNIS, A SPEEDY



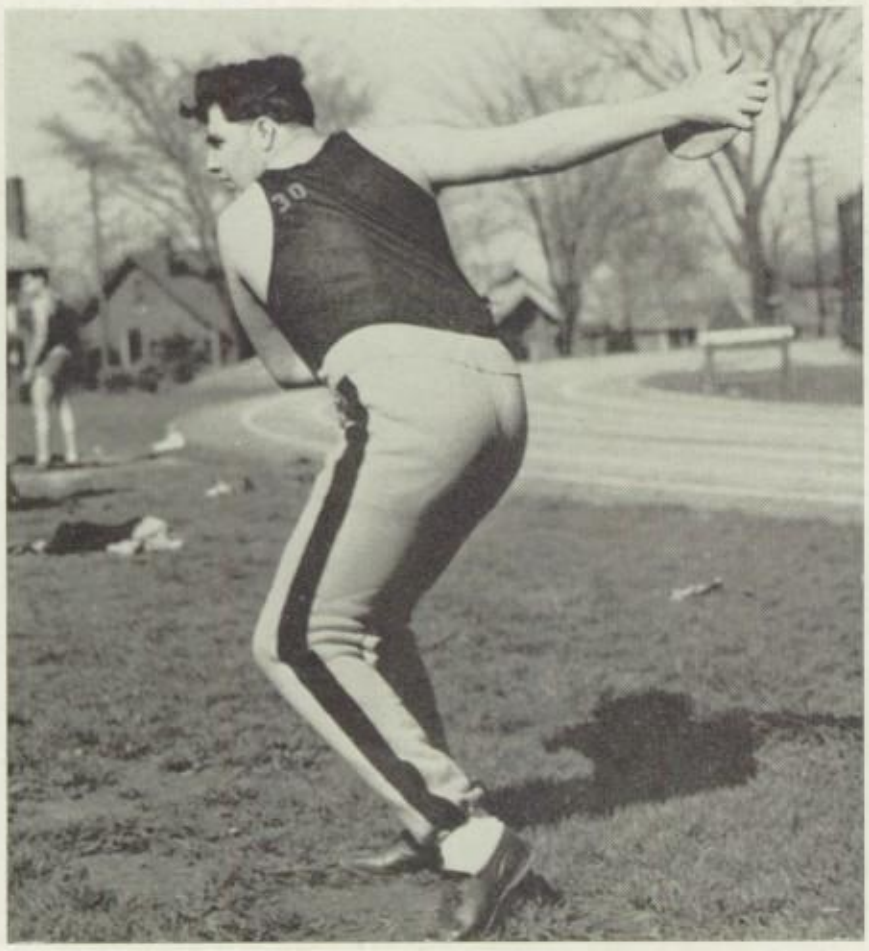




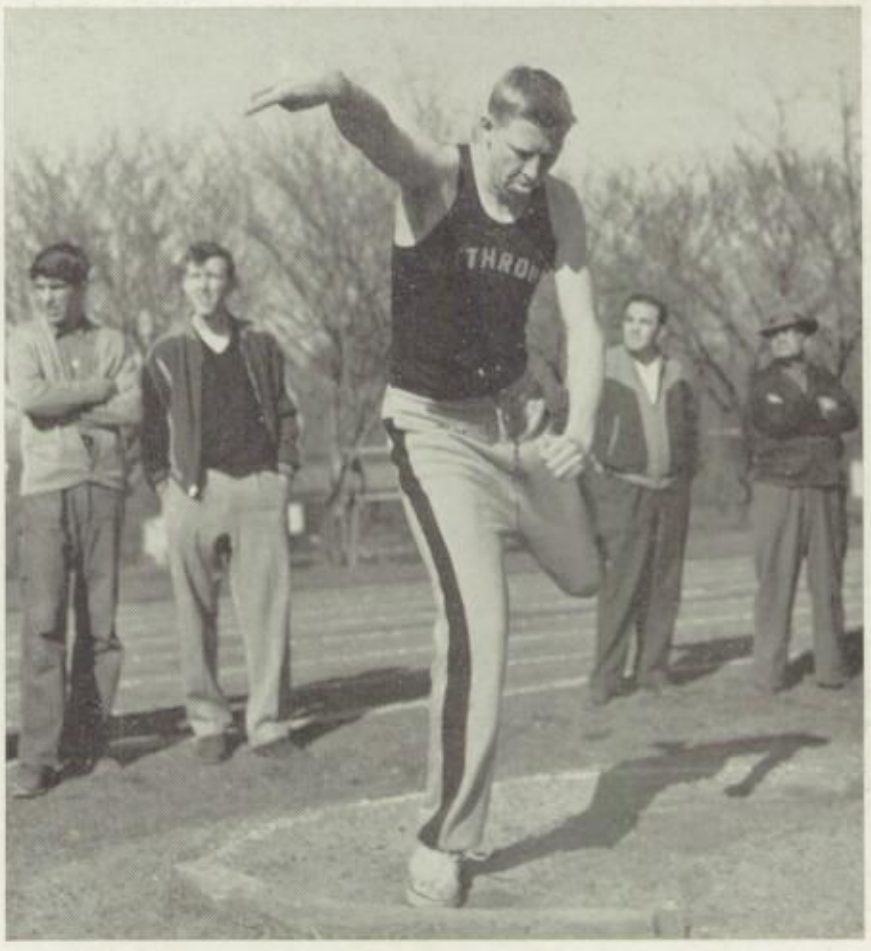
Muscles tense, body strained—one slip means disaster.

This is the difference between victory and defeat.

GAME; TRACK, A DIVERSIFIED ACTIVITY



Heave-ho, this long throw is sure to be a winner.



'Round and 'round it goes, where it lands nobody knows.

INVOLVING MANY DIFFERENT SKILLS;

As the sun beats down on Withrow's track, boys can be seen running doggedly around. Where does this energy come from? Why do they do it? Surely not for fame because track is one of the sports with a small following. Their working and sweating must be for personal satisfaction, so that it can be said they have given some honor to Withrow. With Mr. Nimmo in charge, the track team practices many hours after school in the spring. Those people who get short glimpses of these sessions do not realize the time and work involved in a single meet. But as these tracksters work, they obtain great physical strength, and their golden tans are the envy of all. The cindermen know that they get no more from their strenuous work than they put into it.

AND BASEBALL, VARSITY AND RESERVE,

This year's Varsity Baseball Team has compiled a fair record up till the first of May, winning seven and losing five. This is an exceptionally good showing if one stops to think that the squad is in the process of rebuilding and is made up mostly of rather inexperienced players who meet some of the best teams in the state. The orange and black has had some excellent pitching from regular twillers Willie Ernst and Jack Borcherding but the hitting and fielding has been alternately good and poor because of the lack of experience. Since most of the seventeen man squad will return next year, Coach Huheey and his assistants Mr. Hauck and Mr. Russell believe that the fortunes of Withrow baseball will be on the upspring in the spring of '53. The Tigers' efforts next year should be helped tremendously by some of the budding talent on the Reserve Team under the supervision of Mr. Russell. In the third year of its existence, the squad of twenty boys has won three games and lost only one making it one of the top nines in the Reserve League. These varsity stars of the future years are all either freshmen or sophomore Bengel hopefuls.

Swish! It's a basket! It's a basket in competition within Withrow in its interfraternity basketball games. In an effort to create a better relationship between the school fraternities and promote good sportsmanship, the fraternities organized competition in many sports, of which basketball seems to be the most popular. Of the teams participating Tri Chi placed in the highest rank as they racked up an undefeated year. They were followed by Kappa who, having lost only one game, placed second.

Among the many organizations at Withrow, the Girl's Athletic Association ranks as one of the largest. It is sponsored by the four girls' gym teachers with Mrs. Lally as the chief adviser. In 1927, when G.A.A. was first organized by Miss Taylor, the main objective was to form a club that would offer wholesome recreation and still teach true sportsmanship to the many girls who wished to participate. And now that goal has not only been reached, but as the years have passed the letters G.A.A. have stood for enjoyment, education, and sincere friendships. The managers and officers have worked hard to keep the traditional high standard of G.A.A. at the superior level. The president of the organization is Betty McCartney. Vice President, Carolyn Fisher; Treasurer, Sara Selkirk; Recording Secretary, Barbara Gale; Corresponding Secretary, Helen Littmann; and the Historian, Ellie Bartsch. In order to become a member of this group one must take part in at least one of the numerous after-school activities and then rejoin in January of every year.

Hockey opens the whirl of numerous sports for the ambitious girls at Withrow. As the last days of autumn slip past, many aspirants can be seen trudging out to the familiar play field. Before qualifying for this sport, one must attend three practices. Following this, teams are made up of forwards, guards, and a goalie, and the season begins. The next arrival is volleyball, having the largest turnout of all. This fast-moving and fun-provoking game does require some skill entailed in the technicalities of rules and plays, such as spiking and setups, but all will agree that it's fun. Of course, basketball can't be omitted by any up-and-coming G.A.A.er, since this is one of the more difficult feats to master. Guards and forwards must be agile and strong to withstand the rigors of this game and still be victorious. These things plus the ability to guard and shoot, make basketball a feather in any gal's cap. For a sport of a freer nature, baseball is sure to be recommended. Girls on the team, referees, and gym teachers alike enjoy hearing the crack of the bat against the ball amid cheers of frantic on-lookers, or thrill as a girl slides into home safely.

"Watch the birdie"—and in this case it isn't a camera, it's a feathery shuttlecock. These are typical expressions heard during the season of Individual Sports. Badminton, shuffle-board, horseshoes, and ping-pong, which make up these sports, offer each girl a chance to excel on her own merit instead of as part of a team. Cheerful, lively Lila Mueller and Pat Morris kept everything going on schedule and contestants interested. In the spring a city-wide playday is held in which top scorers in Individuals Sports and softball participate.

Practices were held at twenty, thirty, and forty yard distances. Out of sixty girls, thirty were eligible for the tournament at the Airport Playfield. Ellen Merrill acted as manager for 1951-52. Each fall and spring action-loving "racketeers" engage in the vigorous sport of Tennis. Single tournaments are played in the fall and doubles in the spring. This year tennis for girls was under the management of Marilyn Brown.

WITH FELLOW PUPILS

A sunny day, an eager bunch of girls, a wooded path silently beckoning—and they're off. The members of Withrow's Outing Club race across meadows and groves, scramble through thickets, balance precariously on rocks while fording a stream or wade on in, enjoying the cool water on their ankles. Finally they reach their destination—a shaded spot where they can rest, enjoy a short game of ball and eat "outdoor style" before the long trudge home. Some gals prefer an inside sport and find that a rendevzous at "Stone's" every Thursday seems to get into their blood. The thrill of a "strike" or "spare," the clatter of pins as they fall, the pleasure of watching the score mount and most of all, the satisfaction of overcoming their competition is dear to each and every member of the Bowling Club.

GRACE AND RHYTHM

Splash! Every Thursday a group of mermaids meets for its weekly dip. They've earned this privilege by demonstrating their ability as swimmers to Miss Robinson, the patient adviser, and the older members. Most of their swimming this year was spent diligently practicing for the bi-annual water pageant. The theme was "Around the World with Dolphin Club." Each number depicted a stop on this global trip. After much drill, the show was memorably performed. They began anticipating the spring swimming meets.

It's Thursday night again and sixty-five bounding girls troop to the gym where Mrs. Sallwasser eagerly awaits their arrival. There many a long hour is spent creating original dances set to any type of music. Some of these dances were presented at the Dance Symposium at West Hi in February with Miss Beth Osgood of U.C. as guest teacher and at the tea given for parents on May 8. Some members demonstrated rhythmic exercises with music for the Midwest Physical Education, Health and Recreation Ass'n. at the Sheraton-Gibson Roof Gardens in March. Tryouts for this enterprising club are held in the spring and the fall and one hundred-seventy-five tried out this autumn. The rousing picnic held at each year's end at Handlebar Ranch is one awaited for its general air of good clean fun.

Latin hams mirthfully act out stories of gods.

A conspiracy of jolly but earnest Latin students approach their forum, Room 120, with the hope of learning some news from Rome, which is related to them through the message of some learned scholar, an eager pupil, or through the simple plays produced in home made style, once a month. While Withrow still gleamed with newness, this organization was originated. For twenty one years Gens Togata has been proudly wearing armor with the motto, "constant action." Many enjoyed the musical comedy, "Helen of Troy," given in Withrow's great amphitheater. Now crown the warriors, Miss Grove and Mrs. Maish, for their energetic generalship in the campaign.

Perhaps they are discussing the plans for their trip to the Spanish Inn, a restaurant owned by two South Americans, or maybe they're talking about one of their fiestas? Oh, do you know that they hold fiestas to honor Christmas and Easter? How vicious John Sper, the president, looks! Could it be that they're planning the initiation for the poor first year students? Well, whatever they are contriving it looks as if they have found a clever means of amusing and educating themselves simultaneously.

Members of French Club, under the guidance of Miss Schroeder, acquire knowledge of the French and their customs by attending monthly meetings. This year the club viewed a movie about France and had an exchange student speak to them. A Valentine party and a picnic at the end of the year help comprise the activities of the group. German Club, sponsored by Mrs. Nikoloff provides an opportunity for the members to become acquainted with traditional customs. Singing German songs at the Christmas party and the famous Easter egg hunt are some of the customs observed.

Every other Wednesday a group of enthusiastic teen-agers gather in room 215 after school. What have we here? Why, its the Physics Club meeting presided over by prexy Bob Scherer. Different members perform experiments such as freezing mercury, ringing bells, and making batteries. Students also give reports tying in with their class work. They also enjoy climbing the Tower.

AS THE ONES RIGHT HERE AT WITHROW

"Experience builds knowledge" could be their motto. Under the direction of Miss Vina Cavendish, the Clionian History Club holds its meetings twice a month in 219A. Encouraging the appreciation of World and American history and presenting assemblies and skits to the school are the major activities of this club. A "B" average on the first report period entitles history students to an invitation. Following initiation members are occasionally called upon to give reports or participate in skits. At Thanksgiving the choirs and club's talent joined forces to present an outstanding assembly. These are the young Xenophon's who will someday make history themselves.

The Home Economics Club of Withrow is a large and active group of girls from all four grades. Their common goal is to learn more about the many useful phases of cooking, sewing, and good grooming. Being a home economics student is not a "must" for joining —only the interest is needed. The senior president, Eunice Simpson, presides over the monthly business meetings and is assisted in her numerous duties by a capable staff of officers. The four teachers of household arts are the sponsors of the club. During the year this group has undertaken several social projects for underprivileged children. Talks about hair styling, spring fashions, and cosmetics, in addition to colorful movies, round out the social side.

Boys interested in radios practice Morse code, watch movies, and build radios in 215 on Wednesdays. Radio Club has Mr. Smith and John Truitt as adviser and president. Push, push, pull, click, click—this sound may be heard in Room 21 on Wednesday afternoons studying the intricate parts of a camera, its proper use, and the correct posing for pictures. The Camera Club's head men are Mr. Heger, adviser, and Bob Kleine, president.

EMPLOYMENTS. OTHERS MAY OFFER

Offset Club, led by Dick Agger and directed by Mr. Stearns, is the group of boys that works hard to print our football programs. Another bull's-eye for president, Ron Silber, rapidly followed by nine more well aimed shots has now become mere routine. After many hours of practice on Wednesday nights at the Reading Road armory, our Tiger Gun Club took third place in the PHSL with the help of Mr. Matthews, its fine adviser.

The popular Tiger Club composed of successful lettermen is seen during the football season running concessions for all the starved spectators. The money received from the concessions is used only for school purposes. The greater part is used for a scholarship and the remainder for equipment in the athletic department, such as the glossy white uniforms for our basketball champs. The year's needs determine how this money is used. Cool and steady nerves along with fast thinking and speedy reactions are essentials for the hundred and ninety members of one of the largest organizations at Withrow, the Tennis Club. It is divided into two groups; one for the eager beginners, and the other for the advanced racketeers. Selected from the juniors and seniors of the advanced squad is the vivacious varsity team. Both groups have the privilege of working with their capable and friendly adviser, their own "Sherm."

LOYAL JOURNALISTS FRANTICALLY LABOR

Starting early in the previous summer, the Tower News Staff, consisting of editorial and business divisions, pondered over a striking sales campaign, for the coming fall. Under the guidance of editor, Mike Doench and adviser, Mr. Renshaw, the members put across the "Big Cheese" slogan and the assembly depicting school life without advisers. That netted them the greatest number of subscriptions yet. This accomplished, the staff turned to the hectic business of editing a paper each week. Every afternoon Room 106 is bursting with students, conversation, and confusion. The work seems to be endless as each page must be finished on its appointed day. This usually involves scrambling for polls and stories to fill up holes, some of which are quite large. Two all-school dances, the Football Open House and Leap Year Leap, sponsored by Tower News, brought in much needed revenue. Toward the end of the year the group planned a banquet in honor of the Seniors and announced next year's staff.

Two of the unheralded groups of students around Withrow which keep the school running smoothly are the Tower News and Annual Representatives. Being the immediate contact between these two publications and the student body, the representatives are directly responsible for sales and distribution. The eighty-nine Tower News representatives hold each year two subscription drives, which are extremely important to the financial success of the weekly paper. After making sales to as many students as possible, it is their job to deliver the issues to the subscribers every week. A successful annual depends a great deal on the salesmanship of its representatives, fifty-four in number. During December and January these industrious people sell yearbooks to most of the students, handle all of the Home Room accounts, and distribute the books in June to recipients.

ART STAFF at Work — K. Feiler; B. Hartz; M. Weiss; J. Kepler; E. Merrill; T. Keith.

The brisk breezes of autumn found the Art Staff busily making up the layouts of which the Annual is composed. The copper shortage made it necessary for these patriots to produce stifling odors by separating the engraving plates. The preliminaries finished, the real work began. Out came the pica rulers and our artistic friends turned into mathematical geniuses to design the precise draft of each page. The pictures were planned and soon those class-disrupting picture schedules started. Foresighted cameramen snapped unexpected candid shots to cover all phases of school life. Dick Engel, Mary Anne Feldhaus, Esther Littmann and Mr. Pfister keep things going at a synchronized pace in spite of set-backs caused by a busy school calender. Remember Mr. Tower in the Annual assembly? He was the creation of the Art Staff for the assembly prepared by the Lit Staff.

The Annual Advertising Staff directed by Kay Roberts is an important group in the making of our Annual. Working together with the Art Staff, they assign salesmen to help meet the deficit of the annual by selling ads. Later the clever ad section is planned by this capable staff. The Literary Staff spends many long hours in Room 10 writing copy, headlines and captions for pictures and patiently counting "the characters." Getting picture identifications is another hectic task for the staff. These diligent pupils work endlessly trying to meet the "deadlines," in order to fulfill their earnest pledge to have the annual come out when eager subscribers expect it.

What would the Withrow Annual be without those eye-catching ads which are the final accomplishments of the hard working Ad Salesmen Staff? The members of this staff are sent out with one predominant thought in mind—obtaining ads from the various businesses which they may contact. Another staff which is indispensible as far as the Annual is concerned, is the ever-laboring Business Staff. This group has the tedious job of not only taking care of orders for the yearbook but of keeping numerous books and accounts. Also in the midst of that mad scramble for the annuals at the close of school, this staff is hurriedly distributing the finished products.

URGE, THESE GROUPS ARE UNCONSCIOUSLY

Managers and staff make real work easy by smiling and teasing.

The dreams of the freshmen taking choral music, the aspirations of the boys and girls working their way to the top "en route" Junior Choir and the Glee Clubs are finally to possess polish and perfection enough to be a part of Senior Choir. Yet under those maroon and cream robes and seeming polish are normal "kids" who get flustered at performances and are still awed every year at their own strains of "Adeste Fideles" in the procession down the auditorium aisles during Christmas Assembly. Each choir member is an individual piece of mechanism behind which is Mr. Ansel Martin, constantly working to blend these parts into one all-powerful whole. Providing the oil for this machine is the choir staff whose job is to see that all coordinate parts run smoothly, and to plan their agenda which includes organizing the new Swing Choir.

KNOW BEAUTIFUL AND INSPIRING MUSIC.

Among the many contributions to the esthetic side of Withrow life for which the Orchestra and Boys' Glee Club are responsible, none is more deeply engraved in our memories than the Christmas program. Both groups spent countless hours with their directors, Mr. Howard for orchestra and Mr. Martin for the Glee Club, before the performance to insure a professional touch, both in the selection of the music and in the execution of it. Equal care is taken in all the appearances, where they are almost sure to be well criticized. As orchestra is one of the oldest musical organizations here, it has long been achieving the aim of nearly all clubs, to learn to work well with others and enjoy it.

MINSTRELS . . .

With a roll of drums and a blare of trumpets the Minstrels of 1952 begin another super-dazzling season. Under "Smittie's" sensitive baton, Presentation Orchestra provides a colorful and well-balanced background for many new and old-time novelty acts. Following a thrilling overture, is a glorious opening with the Ponies and Senior Choir exhibited fittingly against a giant medallion with wing-like protrusions and stunning colors. As the show progresses, we marvel at the unusual costumes which Miss Murphy and her crew carefully planned, cut, and sewed, and at the agility and variety of steps possessed by the Ponies and the solo dancers. Of course, "Pop" Hensel and Pat Davis spent many hours working out pony routines. Choir's second number, "Carousel," inspires all with its quiet beauty in some songs and simple happiness in others, all tastefully chosen by its director, Ansel Martin. Another musical feat was that performed by the tireless Male Chorus, with its essential foundation for many production numbers. Even more traditional are those black-faced funnymen who are easily able to provoke the audience into a hilarious laugh. Their own outrageous antics plus some of Mr. Gates' coaching is a sure formula for laughter. A dramatic coach of a different sort is Miss Rosenberger, who, with willing and able performers wows the audience each year with even better comedies. Something that more people enjoy without realizing the amount of work put into, is the unique stage-setting which Ed Frantz, stage manager and the well-chosen efficient stage crews worked on for months previous to the show. The striking colors and carefully executed details of all stage properties add to the shows professional perfection. All of these teachers and students, whether new or old hands at this gigantic job, join together in a spirit of co-operation, scarcely equalled at any other time in the year and produce a show known to be tops in this part of the U.S. Best wishes to the Minstreleers on their 22nd anniversary in 1952.

A lovely medley is sung by colorful Carousel Choir.

House lights dim and silence descends as the 1952 Withrow Minstrels open with "Pagliacci" then blend into the lively "Beyond the Blue Horizon" accompanied by the clickety-clack of opening ponies and the voices of Senior Choir. Withrow Presentation Orchestra, directed by George G. Smith, lends an atmosphere to the show through its accordant, tuneful musical interpretations. Every act, except the skits, has the orchestra for a background. Many months of diligent practice results in perfected musical scores of Presentation Orchestra in the Minstrels. Each year Senior Choir presents a musical number under the direction of Ansel C. Martin. This time they are singing selections from "Carousel." Delicate pastel formals and summer tux suits characterize the delightful music of "Carousel" which is typical of the gay Spring spirit. Ushers and usherettes courteously escort members of an eager audience who have waited patiently for the night their reserved tickets are valid. These sprightly people are kept busy with their duties throughout each Minstrel night. "We Are the Minstreleers" and "God Bless America" with the flag in back brings the finale as the curtain closes and the orchestra sounds the last chords.

TO WORK CREATIVELY TOGETHER IS ONE

Clad in traditional Air Force blue, the Opening Ponies dance to the melodious "Beyond the Blue Horizon."

Even Mother wouldn't recognize them.

Minstrels! The sound echoes through the valley over the bridge and the old school literally rings with its laughter and happiness. In class teachers hopelessly try to pound knowledge into heads of drowsy minstreleers, but at night Withrow sparkles under the glitter of "show bizness." The traditional end men with their traditional jokes, cutting up, and "ad libbing" that follow each number see, to add the finishing (and very important touch) of holding it together. The few tense moments in the wings are just enough for everyone to catch a breath and shoo the impending butterflies. Skits and the Indians, each in their own way, have everyone howling while synchronatin' ponies with their smiles, flashing feet and fascinating eyelashes contribute "zip" to production numbers. Of the most talented are Johnny Boney, who half-kills himself each year with his terrific tap numbers and Mert Newbold, who by giving every ounce of her super vitality leaves everyone in smiles.

Variety is one of the key notes of the Withrow Minstrels. Lively trios and soloists along with original novelty numbers add to the sparkle and the appeal of the show.

Adding vast amounts of pep and wholesomeness to the two-and-a-half hour show are the outstanding individuals who have enough nerve plus plenty of stage personality and talent to give solo or trio appearances. Having put forth an extraordinary amount of preparation, they are able to project a feeling of buoyance and ease upon the audience with their smooth-running, but snappy numbers. These impart a few of the bright spots that people like to remember a long while afterwards. But specialty numbers alone could never make a Minstrel show great. It is the countless number of kids who faithfully appear each night to contribute an essential part who make it, and they too thrill, singing "We Are the Minstreleers."

STUDENT BODY TAKES ADVANTAGE

"Bold dashing Minstreleers" exhausted but triumphant after a week of performance.

These are the make-up artists who know just how to bring out the best features; and these the stitchers. who go through weeks of threading needles and stitching seams to complete the colorful costumes.

At last things were ready. Miss Murphy's sewing committee had the ponies' costumes. Stage manager Eddie Frantz and the stage crew built one of the loveliest stages on which the Minstrels were ever produced. The measles epidemic gave everyone a scare but the make-up crew met the crisis gallantly.

Let's not misspell any words this time, fellas.

Every individual who contributed his precious time and energy for the benefit of the '52 Minstrels did not have the thrilling opportunity of performing in the show and receiving acclaim from the audience in the grand finale. During the weeks before Minstrels you can find a group of boys under the watchful eyes of Mr. Knost, carefully counting the thousands of tickets, and neatly assorting them. If you journey by Miss Murphy's office, you will find the sewing crew working ambidextrously to finish the outfits that our ponies so excellently display. Miss Stose and her girls work energetically to get sufficient facts for the boys who print our minstrel programs. These are but a few of the many groups of students who do not appear to receive applause in the grand finale.

The topic now is Withrow Players, one of the great dramatic organizations of the school. It is, of course, designed to provide advancement in the theatrical world. Valuable experience is gained for those who intend to carry on with their acting. Each year the club produces a popular stage play. For this year the students' choice was "Dear Ruth." They owe much of their success to their producer, Tom Kane, and all will agree he did a wonderful job. Credit must also be given to Virginia Beck, the club's faculty adviser, who helped so much by answering the many questions of how, who, what, and when. The student leader, a very commendable one, is David Stovall, and serving under him as vice president is the ever capable Betty Herschelman. The one chosen to record in the minutes all happenings of the Players is Marianne Newbold. Jane Stimpert and Elinor Bartsch keep in touch with all other organizations in their offices of corresponding secretaries. As Mimi Brown, treasurer, takes care of the finances, the Sergeant-of-Arms, Dick Engel, demands order at the meetings. These people help to make up an efficient club.

Constant turmoil prevails! This is like Grand Central! From stern family discipline to brotherly advice.

Withrow Players went all out this year to produce the popular stage and screen play "Dear Ruth." This is a story in which the mischievous younger sister of Ruth does and says all she can at precisely the wrong time, all of which gets Ruth involved with two men, and the poor girl is faced with the problem of who is her true love. Ellie Bartsch, portraying Ruth, did a marvelous job of coping with the situation at hand. Helena Anderson, as Miriam, her little sister, proved herself to be a typical, pesky, teenage sister, who has started to correspond with a lonely G.I., played by Gary Broman. Now the problem begins when Miriam's parents, Dick Engel and Jody Simester, learn that she has signed Ruth's name to all of the letters. A visit from the G.I. brings an even more complex situation into the household because Ruth has to entertain him besides keeping her fiance, Marc Routt, under control. But, as time passes, she finds her heart taken by the handsome man in uniform. Poor Albert, her fiance, is left to realize that all Ruth really meant to him was a sweet, good, and true friend. Albert recovers from the blow, and little sister Miriam is forgiven for all her deeds; the mother and father have cooled down and now relax in peaceful bliss after the strenuous period in their lives. Thus ends another trying episode.

Poor Albert sees whom his love truly loves.

The 1952 production by Thalian Dramatic club, presented after weeks of hard work, was entitled "Take Care of My Little Girl." The play was an adaptation of Peggy Goodwin's popular book of the same name. The plot is based on the evils of sororities, especially their methods of rushing. It came at an opportune time for Withrow students because the hectic rushing season here was just beginning. Humor was prevalent during the scene which depicted "Hell Week," when dignified Freshmen imitated cats, chickens, and poll parrots. Both sincere love and infatuation were encountered by the heroine; who also snubbed her old friends and lavishly purchased clothes beyond the limit of her budget. At the close of the play she wiped the stardust from her eyes and grimly surveyed the turmoil she had made of her first college year. With determination, she successfully remedied the situation.

Thalian Dramatic Club is composed of eighty-five members, who meet alternate Wednesdays after school in 120. Miss Rosenberger and Mrs. Conwell connive before each meeting with Judy Hallerman, president, to keep these enthusiastic Thespians under control. Some of the ways in which they kept busy were presenting skits in old folks' and childrens' homes, providing food and clothing for a family burned out of its home, and even planning numerous private parties, including the initiation of new members, an annual Halloween party and then an all-out picnic at the end of each year. The big secret of Thalian's successful play this year was in the varied, but happily mixed personalities who made up this active group.

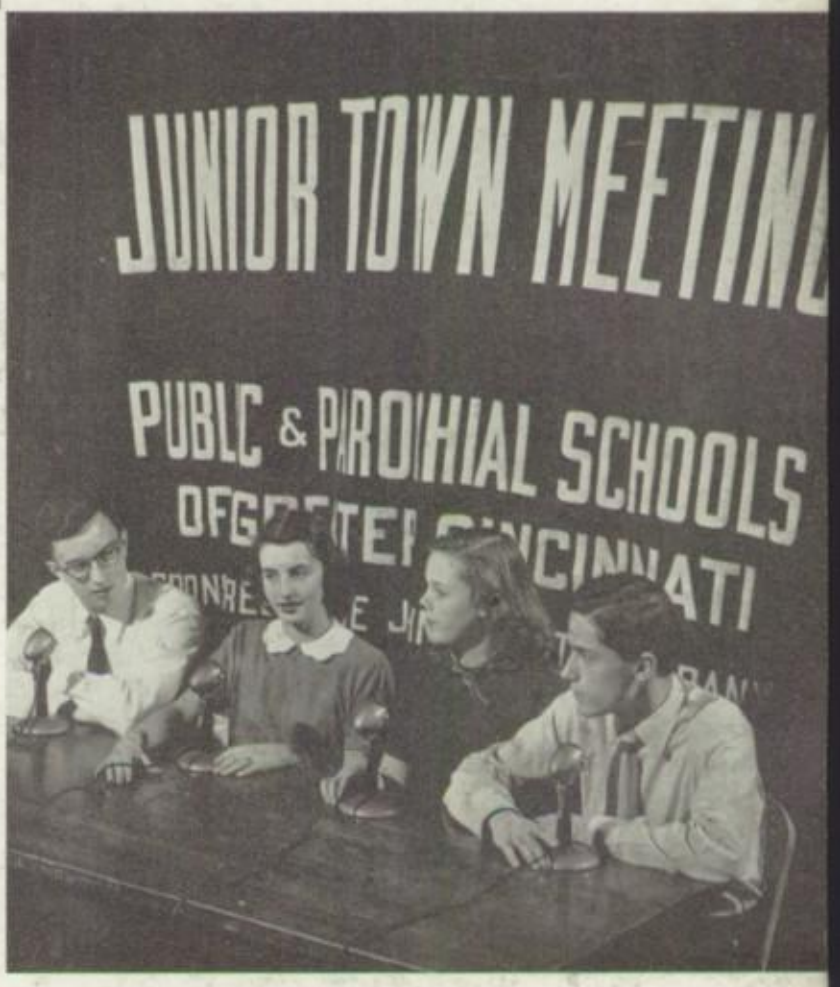
Finding facts to back up arguments can be a long tiresome job.



There seems to be a disagreement here.

"Should More Be Expected of U. S. High School Students?" This was the topic of the Junior Town Meeting debate, first presented in the auditorium and later given as a television program. The negative viewpoint, put forth by Jody Simester and Steve Armstrong, was heartily supported by the majority of the students. Taking the unpopular affirmative side were Mimi Brown and John Chambers, who did a good job defending their ideas against the tirade of questions put to them. The heated debate, which this year was informal and spontaneous, with no written or memorized speeches being given, generated a great deal of audience interest in the form of questions. The alternate for the pro team was Jim Heathcote, while Jim Kinder held down that post for the negative side.

A hush falls over the spectators and the curtain opens. Withrow High School presents "Thalian Dramatic Club." In the spotlight, Judy Hallerman, their president, is outstanding, yet many others are sighted with her; backstage, though a very necessary part in the production, are Miss Rosenberger and the "new hand," Mrs. Conwell, who act as directors. The plot of the play has many intricate passages, but the overall picture is to present dramatics to the pupils and give them stage poise. For publicity Thalians have their own art staff which backs them all the way. The sub plot is a committee which takes care of all the miscellaneous projects, anywhere from a booth for the Tiger Town Twirl to food and clothing for a poor family who were burned out of their home, and entertainment for orphans just before Christmas. The casting for this production is in the fall and spring and is open to everyone; though, when in, all are put through a rugged initiation. The finished product is the result of many activities. During the year there are interludes for fun and relaxation. The "angels" of the company are the club members who pay their dues. The final curtain rings down on the cast having a last theater party.

The constitution of Scribblers provides for thirty girls with literary ability and high grades in English. With Madge Endbrock as president and Miss June Wood as sponsor, these junior and senior girls convene twice a month to promote an interest in literature and create a desire for original production. A typical meeting might include the study of a famous writer or a movie on a historical character. The Philologia Society is an honorary literary organization for boys founded upon the principles of developing the ability to speak extemporaneously, learn parliamentary procedure, and participate in the discussion of current events. Every two weeks this club meets with Mr. Srofe at Knox Presbyterian Church where they carry out their meetings in strict parliamentary style. This group has a membership of about thirty juniors and seniors. In the spring Philologia and Scribblers exchange parties and appreciate each others talents.

Work on scrapbooks for hospitals and a Withrow scrapbook for foreign exchange was begun. Miss Graham heads the Alpha Y and Tower Y Teens, which will be combined next year. The Tip Toppers have a jovial time at their meeting and parties where only those who do not meet the full requirements feel quite a bit out of place. Turning to the more serious side of life the Future Merchandisers can be found learning bits of information that they will find extremely helpful in their future business careers. Those who are members of this club spend their fifth and sixth bells learning "the tricks of the trade" from those who make merchandising their profession.
